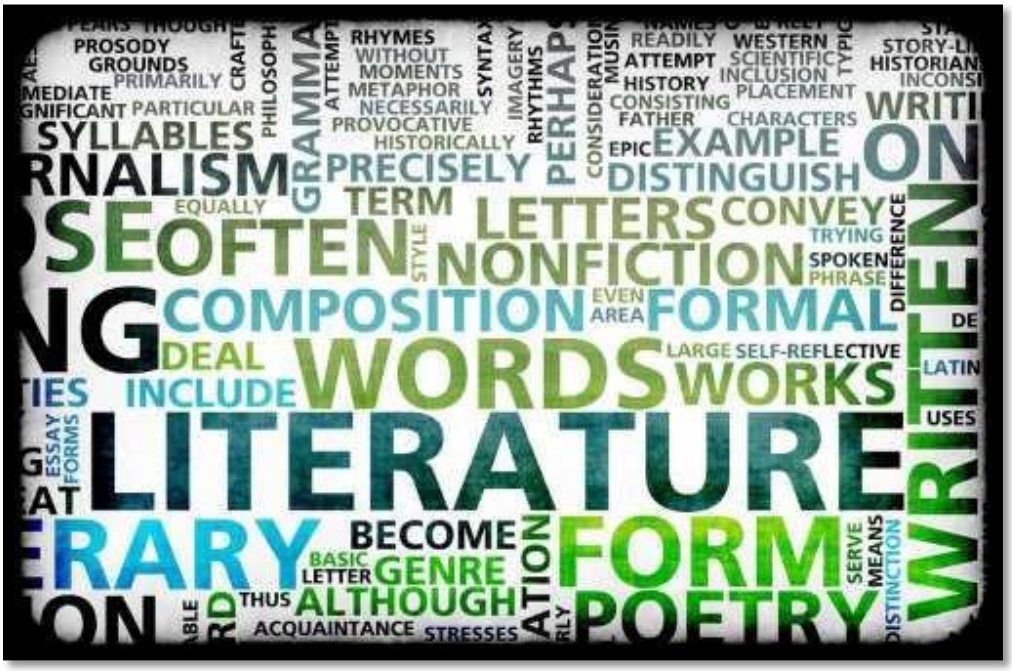
English Studies Essay Contest



Deadline: Mon., March 5, 2018

The Scholarships and Awards Committee invites undergraduate and graduate students to submit essays from Spring 2017-Fall 2017 English courses to the English Department's annual English Studies Essay Contest. Undergraduate and graduate essays will be judged in separate competitions.

- Essays should be of at least 1200 words.
- Essays may address any topic, including literary analysis or interpretation, rhetoric or composition studies, professional writing, pedagogy, and creative nonfiction.
- Submissions should be clean copies without instructor marks or comments.
- A student may submit only one entry.

Monetary prizes will be awarded at the English Department Awards Tea.
Winners will be invited to present on a panel at the English Studies Day Conference.

Please submit your essay online at: https://www.eiu.edu/english/machform/view.php?id=10

You will find the machform on the EIU website under EIU Department of English/Current Students/Essay contests and creative writing contests.
