

Did you enjoy French in high school? Take French WLF 2201G-2202G for gen ed!

French and Francophone Studies

French . . . more than a language

Did you know there are more French speakers on the African continent than on the European or American continents? Intermediate French WLF 2201G-2202G lets you learn about a diversity of cultures where French is spoken and improve your abilities in written and spoken French as you fulfill a General Education Humanities requirement. Want more? Major, double-major, or minor in French to explore the history, literature, and cultures of the Francophone world. We will even give you free credit for the French you already know from high school. Available for honors credit!

Our graduates get jobs in:

- Human Services
- Banks
- Universities
- IT Products and Solutions
- Marketing
- Hospitals and Health Clinics
- Television Studios
- Federal and State Government
- Law Offices
- Private and Public Schools
- . . . and more!
