

24

March 23, 1909.

Senator S. C. Pemberton,
Springfield, Illinois.

Dear Senator Pemberton:

I beg to assure you that you have no cause for any alarm about the administration of this school. All this newspaper talk is made out of next to nothing, and the only statements that had any great significance were absolutely false.

Thanking you again for all that you have done for the school, and trusting it may continue to deserve your confidence, I am

Yours very truly,

[L. C. Lord]

LB 24