Academic advising is a collaborative teaching and learning process dedicated to student success. At Eastern Illinois University, academic advisors provide students with the opportunity to develop an interactive one-to-one partnership aimed at enhancing students’ intellectual and personal development. Participation by both advisor and student is integral to the advising process. Advisors provide guidance, support, and encouragement as they teach students how to plan and to approach their educational career in an organized, responsible, and meaningful way.

Mission Statement:
The Academic Advising Center at Eastern Illinois University supports and enhances the educational mission of the University. The Center is committed to creating quality and accessible advising partnerships with students in a positive environment that promotes student success and cultivates self-sufficient lifelong learners.

Objectives:
- Students will explore their interests and academic goals.
- Students will examine the online course catalog, academic handbook, and PAWS.
- Students will research major, minor, and career options.
- Students will become familiar with the General Education requirements and University Learning Goals.
- Students will seek assistance when needed and ask questions regarding University policies and procedures.

Required Texts/Materials:
- EIU Website:  http://www.eiu.edu/
- Online Undergraduate Catalog:  http://catalog.eiu.edu/index.php
- Academic Handbook
- Major and/or Minor Checklists
- PAWS:  http://www.eiu.edu/pawslogin/; see AAC website for PAWS tutorial

Advisor Responsibilities:
- To value you as an individual and demonstrate a genuine concern for your well-being
- To provide and explain accurate information
- To guide you as you explore your academic and career goals through self-reflection regarding your strengths, weaknesses, and passions
- To assist you with developing your academic plan
- To review your academic progress and explain policies, resources available, and make referrals to other support services to encourage success
- To be accessible for meeting with you during established office hours, by appointment, by telephone, or e-mail
- To maintain confidentiality concerning all personal and academic matters
Advisee Responsibilities:
- To thoughtfully consider my academic and career goals
- To accept responsibility for my decisions concerning my academic and career goals
- To research the academic programs available and learn the applicable requirements and policies
- To carefully review my major and/or minor requirements
- To notify my advisor when I have questions and/or become aware of issues of concern
- To carefully read and respond to communications from my advisor, the Academic Advising Center, and other offices on campus
- To seek important dates and plan for deadlines set by the Academic Advising Center and the University
- To maintain a folder with advising materials such as the advising syllabus, calendar, advisement worksheets, major and minor checklists, and current degree audit

Policies and Procedures for Advising:
- You are welcome to meet with your advisor often, but you are required to make an advisement appointment at least once each semester to discuss registration options.
- Make advising appointments in person in 2100 Ninth Street Hall or by calling 217-581-2313.
- Cancel or reschedule your appointment ahead of time if you cannot attend as planned.
- Prepare for your appointments.
  - Study and review departmental checklists and websites as well as the online catalog for requirements.
  - Check PAWS for course offerings.
  - Check PAWS for holds; you should meet with your advisor even if you have a hold so you are ready to register once it is lifted.
  - Prepare a list of classes you would like to take, and check prerequisites.
  - Write down any questions you may have.
  - Be on time.
- Check your EIU e-mail account regularly. It is the only one the University will use to contact you.
- Be professional when you e-mail or call your advisor, professors, and other staff on campus. Clearly and respectfully explain your questions and concerns, and include your name and E-number with all correspondence.
- Resend e-mail or call your advisor a second time if he/she does not respond to e-mail or phone messages within 48 hours.
- Walk-ins are welcome, but for your convenience, you may wish to call ahead to ensure your advisor is available.

Important Dates and Deadlines:
- The attached Freshman Calendar highlights important dates and deadlines that will be useful to you as you become acclimated to EIU.
- The Academic Calendar is updated each semester and is an important tool to access throughout your college career: http://www.eiu.edu/registra/acadcal.php
