Eastern Illinois University offers numerous outstanding teacher education opportunities. Whether you want to teach elementary school, middle school, or high school, Eastern has a program that can help you accomplish your goals. The University offers the following nationally accredited, state approved undergraduate teacher licensure programs that can be completed in four years:

- Art
- Career & Technical Education (Business Education, Family & Consumer Science Education, Technology Education)
- Early Childhood Education
- Elementary Education
- English/Language Arts
- Foreign Languages (French, Spanish, German)
- Mathematics
- Middle Level Education
- Music
- Kinesiology and Sports Studies (Physical Education)
- Science (designations in Biological Science, Chemistry, Physics, and Earth Science)
- Social Science (designations in Geography, History, Political Science, Psychology, and Sociology/Anthropology)
- Special Education
- Theatre Arts

For more information contact Dr. Doug Bower at djbower@eiu.edu
Why Should You Choose EIU to Become a Teacher?

- You will join other EIU teachers who are described as well prepared by 97% of their principals.
- Your teacher education faculty are experienced K-12 educators.
- Your EIU faculty are available to students.
- You participate in student organizations where you network with teachers, administrators, and counselors.
- You receive quality mentoring throughout all aspects of your program.
- You participate in community and service learning activities.
- You have experiences in K-12 schools and educational agencies during all 4 years.
- You can enroll in teacher education related study abroad opportunities.
- You can complete student teaching in a rural, urban, suburban, or overseas setting.

You can complete your teacher education program in 4 years!

All of EIU’s teacher education programs are nationally accredited and state approved.