GRONIGER ARENA
SATURDAY, MAY 9, 2026

WELCOME TO THE CAMPUS OF EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY.

Today's graduation ceremony will be a memorable moment in the lives of the graduates and their parents, relatives, and friends.

Eastern Illinois University considers the recognition of each graduate important, and applause for your graduate is certainly appropriate. In order to maintain a dignified graduation ceremony, we ask that you refrain from disruptive behavior such as whistling or shouting. Your cooperation in maintaining an atmosphere appropriate to the symbolic conclusion of the college experience for the graduates is requested.

In consideration of all the graduates, please remain in your seats until after the ceremony and recessional are concluded.

HONORARY DEGREE AND COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

MORNING

Keith Kohanzo is a lifelong educator, mentor, and public servant whose work has shaped generations of young people and helped define student development practices at both the local and national levels. Over a distinguished 34-year career at Eastern Illinois University, starting as a Residence Hall Counselor, followed by 27 years as the founding director of the Office of Judicial Affairs (now the Dean of Students Office), Keith established the University's first Code of Student Conduct—creating a framework rooted not only in accountability, but in compassion and growth. His philosophy of caring accountability has guided countless students toward success, offering second chances and reinforcing the belief that education extends beyond the classroom.

A recognized leader in higher education, Keith was a founding member of the Association for Student Judicial Affairs (now the Association for Student Conduct Administration), helping to shape a profession that now spans all 50 states and institutions worldwide. His influence continues to be felt through the standards and practices he helped establish.

Beyond campus, Keith's commitment to youth development spans more than six decades. As the nation's longest-serving member of the United States Naval Sea Cadet Corps, the Navy's youth program, he achieved the rank of Lieutenant Commander. He trained thousands of young people in leadership, discipline, and seamanship, including both American and Canadian Sea Cadets on the Great Lakes and as an exchange officer in British Columbia.

Keith's impact on the community has been profound. He was an active volunteer with Charleston's Big Brothers Big Sisters program and, in 1999, founded Scouting America's Troop 141. He developed it into one of the region's most successful troops. Under his leadership, more than 25% of Troop 141 scouts have achieved the rank of Eagle—far surpassing the 5% national average. His dedication to service has inspired scouts to complete numerous community projects, from environmental conservation along the Embarrass River to the creation of outdoor learning spaces in Charleston. His scouting leadership has been recognized with the God and Service Award of the United Methodist Church, and with Scouting's Greater Saint Louis Area Council's Silver Beaver Award, as well as numerous other honors. He has also provided significant leadership at Wesley United Methodist Church and the EIU Wesley Foundation.

A recipient of the Eastern Illinois University Distinguished Alumnus Award and the Jefferson Award for Public Service, Keith Kohanzo exemplifies a life of service, leadership, and enduring impact. His legacy reflects a deep commitment to empowering others, strengthening communities, and advancing the greater good.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

AFTERNOON

Colonel Leon L. Rogers II, a native of Chicago, Illinois, began his military career in 1996 by enlisting in the Illinois National Guard as an 88M Truck Driver with the 634th Forward Support Battalion while completing his undergraduate studies at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. He later attended Eastern Illinois University, where he joined ROTC, earned a Master of Business Administration, and commissioned as an Armor Officer. In 2006, he joined the Acquisition Corps and holds DAWIA Level III certifications in Contracting and Program Management.

COL Rogers also earned an M.S. in Management of Information Systems from the Florida Institute of Technology and an M.S. in National Security and Resource Strategy from the Eisenhower School. He is a graduate of the Joint and Combined Warfighter School and the Joint Logistics Course.

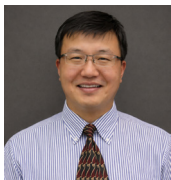

His command assignments include Tank Platoon Leader, Comanche Troop and HHT Commander in the 4th Squadron, 7th Cavalry Regiment, Director of Contracting, Battalion Commander of the Regional Contracting Center Qatar, and Project Manager for Combat Ammunition Systems.

Key staff roles include Squadron Maintenance Officer, Chief of Contracting (OEF), Warranted Contracting Officer for the Apache 64E ACAT1 Program, Contracting Division Chief for Unmanned Aircraft Systems, Executive Officer to the ACC Commanding General, Joint Staff Branch Chief of Operations and Plans for the Operational Contract Support Division, ACoS G4/Program Integrator to Arlington National Cemetery, and Executive Officer to the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Acquisition, Logistics, and Technology) (ASA(ALT)).

Currently, as the Military Deputy to the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Plans, Programs, and Resources (DASA-PPR) in the Office of ASA(ALT), COL Rogers oversees the planning, programming, budgeting, and execution of over $30 billion annually for Army modernization. He manages acquisition human capital, PM/CPE auditability, and compliance efforts, while supporting the Army's Continuous Capability Analysis and Assessment (C2A2) to inform resource allocation, portfolio governance, and modernization investments.

His awards include the Legion of Merit, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal (silver and oak leaf clusters), Army Commendation Medal (two oak leaf clusters), Joint Service Achievement Medal, Army Achievement Medal (three oak leaf clusters), Joint Staff Badge, and Army Staff Badge. He is also a recipient of the Presidential Lifetime Achievement Award.

LUIS CLAY MENDEZ DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

Dr. Hongshan He, Professor of Chemistry, earned his B.S. and M.S. from Lanzhou University and his Ph.D. from Sun Yat-sen University. Following a period in the pharmaceutical industry, he began his academic career at National Huaqiao University, where he rose to the rank of professor in 2004. He later held research positions at North Dakota State University and South Dakota State University before joining Eastern Illinois University (EIU) in 2013. At EIU, he was tenured in 2017 and promoted to full professor in 2022.

A prolific researcher, Dr. He focuses on the coordination chemistry of lanthanides for imaging, transition-metal photochemistry for photocatalysis, and materials for solar energy conversion. He has published over 100 peer-reviewed works and delivered more than 60 invited presentations. Since 2013, he has secured significant funding from the National Science Foundation, the ACS Petroleum Research Fund, and the Dreyfus Foundation to support student-led research. A six-time recipient of EIU's Achievement and Contribution Awards, Dr. He has mentored 21 undergraduate and 15 graduate students, many of whom have pursued advanced degrees at prestigious institutions.

Dr. He is equally committed to pedagogical excellence, teaching courses ranging from General Chemistry to Advanced Laboratory. He consistently integrates student feedback and new technologies into his curriculum, earning five Redden Grants and the 2016 Michael R. Hoadley Excellence in the Use of Instructional Technology Award. As the current coordinator for the General Chemistry sequence, he has been instrumental in modernizing the department's curriculum. Beyond the classroom, Dr. He is a supportive colleague and an advocate for wellness, frequently drawing on his own career to inspire students to pursue paths in STEM.

ACADEMIC COSTUME

The pageantry of commencement exercises dates from the Middle Ages and the traditions of Europe's first universities. The origins of academic attire are little known, but it is probable that because students in medieval times enjoyed the status of clerics, their dress was patterned after clerical dress. The gown appears to be an adaptation of the robe of a priest or friar; the hood and mortarboard evolved from the cowl and skullcap worn by monks and friars.

For each of the degree levels (bachelor's, master's, and doctoral), the gown is distinctive. The bachelor's gown is yoked, has long sleeves, and is worn closed. The doctoral gown has full, bell-shaped sleeves and is trimmed with velvet panels down the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve.

While black velvet is proper trimming for doctoral gowns, the color of the panels and bars is often varied to indicate the academic discipline in which the degree was earned.

Although hoods are available for all three degree levels, the hood for the bachelor's regalia is seldom used. The doctoral hood varies from the other two in that it has flat, wide panels on either side. The colors lining the detachable hoods are those of the college or university granting the degree.

The black mortarboard cap or tam is the accepted style in colleges and universities of the United States. Many foreign universities have distinctive and colorful forms of headdresses.

An integral part of the headdress, the tassel varies widely in its use and color. The doctor usually wears a gold tassel, although black is acceptable; the master wears a black tassel. For the bachelor, the tassel can be black or varied according to the degree.

The present academic costume has evolved from a traditional background covering hundreds of years. With the adoption of the Intercollegiate Code in 1895, a definite pattern was established to make possible the recognition of degrees conferred by American colleges and universities.

HONORS PROGRAMS

Eastern's Sandra and Jack Pine Honors College includes University and Departmental Honors programs. Both programs unite a diverse community of scholars as they develop as leaders on campus, in the community, and in their future professions. University Honors Laureate graduates have completed a minimum of 26 hours of honors coursework; University Honors Scholar graduates have completed a minimum of 15 hours of honors coursework. Departmental Honors graduates have completed 12 hours of Honors coursework, including an undergraduate thesis. All Honors graduates have earned a minimum 3.5 GPA.

HAMAND SOCIETY OF GRADUATE SCHOLARS

Named in honor of Dr. Lavern Hamand, the first dean of the Graduate School at Eastern Illinois University (1961-74), the Hamand Society of Graduate Scholars is a designation of distinction in graduate education based on achievements in both scholarship and service. Recipients are nominated by the graduate faculty. Candidates inducted into the society must document the impact of their scholarship and service to the discipline of study and to the community. The Hamand Society of Graduate Scholars reflects the highest ideals of the engaged graduate scholar.

GRADUATION WITH DISTINCTION

ALMA MATER

Music by Frederich Koch – Words by Isabel McKinney

For us arose thy walls and towers;
Their beauty, strength, and grace are ours.
Thy hills and prairies at thy feet;
For us in lovely landscape meet.
So must our hearts remember thee;
So may our lives our tribute be.
Strong, true, and beautiful and brave and free;
So shall our hearts, our hearts, remember thee.

The audience is invited to join in the singing of the National Anthem and the Alma Mater.
