

Department of Communication Studies

Study Abroad
Faculty Recommendation

Effective Fall 2006

Applicant's name: _____

Program Sponsor/host Institution: _____

Host Location (city, country): _____

Term: _____

To the faculty member making the recommendation: Please complete the questions below return this form to the student applicant who will submit it with his/her application. A letter that addresses the questions below is also acceptable. Thank you!

How long, and in what circumstances, have you known the applicant?

Please describe the applicant's performance in your class.

Based upon your knowledge of the applicants background, intellectual competence and performance, how would you describe the applicant?

- Superior Student Excellent Student Good Student
 Average Student Below Average Student

Do you feel the candidate would be a good student to select for participation in this study abroad program?

- Yes, definitely Yes, with some reservations Perhaps not No

How would you describe the applicant with regards to serious of purpose and responsibility?

How would you describe the applicant with regards to tact, sensitivity, and ability to get along with others?

Please include any additional comments that would help evaluate the applicant.

If you are a foreign language instructor, please answer questions the next two questions

Compared with the skills of all other students who have studied in your class(es) at the same level as the applicant, the applicant's foreign language skills are

- Proficient Average Below Average

Is the applicant's present language competency adequate for the type of study proposed? Please explain, if necessary.

Name

Title

Signature

Date

Return this completed form to the student applicant