

Description

The UA Campus Health Service Lead Videographer will be responsible for the production of all videos for Campus Health. During this time, they will learn about Campus Health and health-related issues impacting college students in order to effectively convey positive health messages to UA students through video. From brainstorming scripts to editing and production, they will be involved in all components of this award-winning video series.

The benefits of this position include:

- Hourly pay
- Be a part of an award winning team
- Opportunity to expand video production and directing abilities
- Create a large body of work
- Increase knowledge of health issues impacting college students
- Increase knowledge of health-related campus events and activities
- Have a positive impact on the UA community

Responsibilities

- Conduct all Campus Health TV video shoots
- Organize and convert video footage
- Edit all Campus Health videos
- Find and shoot footage for additional projects
- Be an integral part of the script writing, filming, video production, and editing for all CHTV videos
- Other job related projects or duties as assigned

Requirements

- BFA Film and Television Production sophomore (preferred) or similar level of experience
- Computer skills: Final Cut Pro or comparable post production software
- Must have technical knowledge of filming and video production techniques
- Must have ability to communicate effectively
- Must have ability to give and take direction well
- Creative and out-of-the-box thinker
- Must have ability to pay close attention to detail and understand written and oral instructions
- Must be able to work well under time constraints and deadlines
- Must be able to handle multiple tasks
- Must stay up to date on editing and post-production software
- Experience in Final Draft/CeltX
- Willing to learn and expand knowledge of video editing programs into After Effects, Color, etc.
- Must have a flexible schedule
- Currently enrolled at The University of Arizona

Compensation

The UA Campus Health Service Lead Videographer will work approximately 10 hrs/week at $12 per hour.