FINAL EXAM: TUESDAY, DEC. 11—12:30-2:30

Unit Theme: Educator as Creator of Effective Educational Environments: Integrating diverse students, subjects, strategies, societies, and technologies.

Catalog Course Description: Objectives, research, teaching methods, and materials for teaching and evaluating the language arts. Field-based activities will be provided in conjunction with ELE 3000.

Prerequisites & Concurrent Enrollment: Concurrent enrollment in ELE 3280 and ELE 3000, or permission of department chair. For middle school option, consult advisor for course sequence. University Teacher Education requirements apply and department requirements for enrollment must be met, including an expectation of second semester Junior standing.

Course Purpose: Recent literature is emphasizing the relationship between reading and other language arts; therefore, a two semester hour course in language arts will allow prospective teachers the opportunity to read and utilize the current research and teaching techniques expected of a competent teacher.

Course Textbook:

Tompkins, G.E., (2013). Language arts: Patterns of practice (8th ed.). Upper Saddle River, NJ: Merrill Prentice Hall, Pearson Education Inc.

Teaching Model:

The Information-Processing Models

• Information-processing models emphasize ways of enhancing the human being's innate drive to make sense of the world by acquiring and organizing data, sensing problems and generating solutions to them, and developing concepts and language for conveying them.

Joyce, B., Weil, M., & Calhoun, E. (2009). Models of teaching. (8th ed.). Boston: Pearson.

Dispositions: Teacher candidates in the department of EC/ELE/MLE will exhibit professional ethical practices, effective communication, sensitivity to diversity, the ability to provide varied teaching practices evidenced in a supportive and encouraging atmosphere for learning.

Live Text Assessment Requirement: For those classes with Live Text or Practicum- If the portfolio or Live Text requirements are rated, by the instructor, to have been completed in less than a satisfactory manner then no more than a "D" may be earned in the class regardless of the number of points earned.

Standards

Course requirements and demonstrated competencies are aligned with the following standards:

- Illinois Professional Teaching Standards (IPTS) http://www.isbe.net/profprep/PDFs/ipts.pdf
- Technology Standards for all Illinois Teachers (ICTS)

http://www.isbe.net/profprep/CASCDvr/pdfs/24120_coretechnology.pdf

Optional assignments (that might be considered by the professor):

- 1. Website Presentations: Students search for a good website that you could use for the concept in the elementary school, evaluate it for usage with children and demonstrate how you would teach the concept using the particular website.
- 2. Learning Activity: Presentation of a creative idea or strategy for teaching in the classroom
- 3. Evaluation of Writing Samples: Using the components of the ISAT rubric, you will review student writing samples, ultimately grading and writing rationales for specific samples.

Grading Scale: 92%-100% = A 82%-91% = B 72%-81% = C 62%-71% = D Below 62% = F

*The class grade is based upon class participation/attendance, required assignments completed when due and exams.

Late assignments will not be accepted late unless prior approval by teacher ((one point will be deducted for each class day for which the assignment is late). The instructor reserves the right to make changes in the syllabus upon notification of the change to all students in the course.

PROFESSIONALISM IS EXPECTED: Attendance is very important. Remember that you are going to be a classroom teacher, and teachers are expected to be in their classrooms each day—on time! Points will be taken off for being habitually tardy. If you are unable to attend class, please send assignments with a classmate, have them take notes for you and pick up any hand-outs. Also informing the instructor of your absence is appreciated. Correct grammar, mechanics, spelling and correct sentence structure are expected in any written work. Points will be deducted for each infraction. Class teachers are responsible for all the correspondence leaving their classroom, so mastery of the English language is important.

Academic Integrity

"The Department of EC/ELE/MLE is committed to the learning process and academic integrity as defined within the Student Conduct Code Standard I. "Eastern students observe the highest principles of academic integrity and support a campus environment conducive to scholarship." Students are expected to develop original and authentic work for assignments submitted in this course. "Conduct in subversion of academic standards, such as cheating on examinations, plagiarism, collusion, misrepresentation or falsification of data" or "submitting work previously presented in another course unless specifically permitted by the instructor" are considered violations of this standard."

Student Success Center

Students who are having difficulty achieving their academic goals are encouraged to first contact their instructor. If needing additional help, please contact the Student Success Center (www.eiu.edu/~success) for assistance with time management, test taking, note taking, avoiding procrastination, setting goals, and other skills to support academic achievement. The Student Success Center provides individualized consultations. To make an appointment, call 217-581-6696, or go to 9th Street Hall, Room 1302.
