This is designed to allow students to spend an adequate amount of time on the assignments and submit them in a timely manner. It is strongly suggested to not wait until the due date to complete and submit the assignments.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS, EXAMS, ETC. WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

All assignments will be closely evaluated on content. Assignments and discussions are to be posted ONLY on the weeks they are due.

Students are required to log into the Discussion Board a minimum of 2 times for each Module to submit discussion postings. The due dates for each posting are clearly stated on the Class Schedule for each Module. If you believe that this rigor does not meet with your weekly schedule, you might consider taking the course in the face-to-face, on campus format.
