

Illinois Constitution of 1818

Article VIII Section 21

§ 21. That there shall be no other banks or moneyed institutions in this state than those already provided by law, except a state bank and its branches, which may be established and regulated by the general assembly of the state as they may think proper.