Daryll D. Fletcher
Vice President Risk Management
Allstate Insurance Company

Fall 2004
Executive-in-Residence

Daryll D. Fletcher is currently Vice President of Risk Management for the Allstate Insurance Company. He oversees countrywide Risk Management policy for Allstate Insurance Company, the largest publicly held personal lines insurer in the U.S.

Daryll was born and raised in the St. Louis, Missouri area. He has a Bachelor's Degree in Speech Communication and a Master's Degree from Eastern Illinois University from the Department of Psychology Guidance and Counseling. Daryll began his Allstate career in 1976 in the Indianapolis Region. While participating in a management development program, he held positions in Sales, Operations, and Claims. After holding various other positions in Underwriting, in 1986, Daryll was promoted to Underwriting Manager in the Jackson, Mississippi office. He held a similar position in 1987 in the Kansas City Region. In 1992, Daryll was promoted to Field Support Director in Allstate's Home Office in Northbrook, Illinois, where he held positions in Underwriting, Sales, and Marketing.

In 1995, Daryll was appointed Assistant Vice President of Urban and Hispanic Marketing, where he was responsible for helping Allstate achieve its growth goals within the largest Urban and Hispanic markets in the country. In 1997, he was promoted to Regional Vice President of the Capital Region, where he was responsible for $1.4 billion in premiums for the states of Maryland, Virginia, and the District of Columbia. Daryll returned to Allstate Home Office in 1999 as Assistant Vice President of Underwriting. In 2000, he was elected to the position of Vice President, Risk Management, where he currently serves. Daryll has been involved in several organizations over the years, which include Junior Achievement, Urban League, Neighborhood Housing Foundation, and Board of the YMCA. In 2004, Daryll was Allstate's corporate chair for the Giving Campaign, a program that raises millions for charities across America.
