

OUTSTANDING FACULTY AWARD COLLEGE OF SCIENCES

Do you want to recognize a professor who has made a difference in your life, college career, or educational pursuits? Here is your chance!

The College of Sciences Student Advisory Board recognizes outstanding faculty from each department each year. Students are invited to nominate faculty members who have been influential to them at EIU.

Nominations are submitted in the form of an essay which may include, but is not limited to, these characteristics:

1. Academic impact of instructor on student's future or career goals
2. Excellence in the classroom
3. Service to students
4. Promotion of profession
5. Be a member of the COS faculty

If you believe that one of your professors deserves to be recognized with this honorable award at ScienceFest 2003, please submit an essay about the professor, highlighting the characteristics. The essay is limited to three (3) typed, double-spaced pages and should be sent to your Department Chair's Office by Friday, March 5, 2004. Use the nomination form for the first page. Include your name, address, email, and telephone number.

- ✓ Group nominations are acceptable
 - ✓ The winner will be selected by the COS Student Advisory Board
 - ✓ Nominating student has the option of presenting the award at ScienceFest on March 26, 2004
 - ✓ Questions should be directed to Bridget Hellwig (bri_725@yahoo.com), Student Dean of the College of Sciences @ 708-989-7669 (cell phone), or your department representative to the Student Advisory Board:
- ✓ Nomination forms are available in your department office or on the COS Web Site, <http://www.eiu.edu/~colsci/>. Click "Student Advisory Board".
