

First Reading

On the copy of the letter provided:

Circle the date the letter was written.

Underline any words you don't recognize or can't read.

Looking at the letter

Who wrote the letter?

Who was the letter written to?

Do they know each other?
If yes, how?

Reading what you can in the letter, go back and write in words that you think make sense for some that you underlined.

Choose one sentence from the letter and rewrite it here:

--	--

What about this sentence attracted your attention?

--	--

What do you think this letter is about?

--	--

After reading a transcript or listening to a reading of the Letter

What new information do you have about the letter?

--	--

How accurate was the sentence you wrote?

--	--

What questions do you have about this letter?

--	--

How could you learn the answers to your questions?

--	--

Why do you think someone saved this letter?

--	--