

Mrs. Wanda Kay Robinson
Office Administrator
Office of Faculty Development
wkrobinson@eiu.edu
217-581-7051

Mrs. Wanda Kay Robinson has been employed at Eastern Illinois University (EIU) since 1997. She transferred from the Campus Scheduling Office, where she worked as a Space Administrator, to become the Office Administrator for the Office of Faculty Development in 2008. Prior to coming to EIU, Wanda Kay hosted, co-wrote, and co-produced her own weekly television show called "A Touch of Love with Wanda Kay." She performed on and co-produced ten professional commercial audio recordings. In addition, Wanda Kay co-founded a non-profit organization and Christian school in Roanoke, Virginia. She currently serves voluntarily as President of a Recognized Student Organization at EIU and on the Board of Directors for Christ Ministries, Inc, the non-profit organization that she co-founded.