
OFFICE OF FACULTY DEVELOPMENT WHOLESOME PROFESSOR SERIES

Dr. Mark Kattenbraker
Kinesiology and Sports Studies
“Heart Disease: Assessment and Management of Personal Risk”
12:00 noon
Arcola-Tuscola Room

Dr. Mark Kattenbraker is a native of Chester, IL. He received his BS from Southern Illinois University – Carbondale in Exercise Science and his MS from Eastern Illinois University in Exercise Science. He completed his PhD in Health Education through Southern Illinois University – Carbondale in July 2007.

Dr. Kattenbraker is in his third year as assistant professor in the department of Kinesiology and Sports Studies (KSS). His professional interests include personal wellness, research and publication ethics.

He is married to Colleen (Vandever) Kattenbraker, also an instructor in the KSS department, and has two children, Sophie and Grant.