

---

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT SUPPORT GRANT
FALL 2007 RECIPIENT

---

Dr. Kathleen Phillips
Internship Coordinator
Department of Health Studies
Lantz 1630
(217) 581.6315

Dr. Kathleen Phillips began her teaching career at EIU in 1978 after completing her undergraduate degree at Slippery Rock University and Master's degree from Western Illinois University in health education. Dr. Phillips obtained her PhD from Southern Illinois University in 1984. Currently she is a professor in the Health Studies Department and serves as Intern Coordinator for the program. Dr. Phillips teaches courses in health promotion program planning, aging and health, drugs and society, and an introduction to professions in school and community health course. She has taught on-line courses since 1997 and received the EIU Excellence in the Use of Technology in 2005. Dr. Phillips also serves as faculty co-sponsor for the EIU chapter of Eta Sigma Gamma, the national health education honorary.