
FACULTY DEVELOPMENT SUPPORT GRANT
FALL 2007 RECIPIENT

Dr. Betty Smith
Department of Geology – Geography
Associate Professor
217.581.6340
besmith@eiu.edu

Dr. Smith received her Ph.D. in Geography from State University of New York at Buffalo, her M.A. in Geography (Environmental Planning from California State University, Chico and her B.A. in Geography from the University of California, Davis. She was won the both the 1997 and 1999 Excellence in Research Contribution Award from Eastern Illinois University and has served as the 2004 and 2005 President of the Midwest Association of Latin American Studies (MALAS). Dr. Smith's research interests include global south-north human migration patterns (studies in Ecuador and Spain); the cultural evolution of traditional weavers in highland Ecuador; eco-tourism and sustainable development in the Andes Mountains and Amazon rainforest; population density analysis using 3D and geographic information systems (GIS); local land use planning and development in Illinois and California and spatial data analysis of manufacturing work stoppages in the Great Lakes States.