

THE LOUISE (TYM) HONNOLD AND MARTHA (TYM) JOHNSON SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Established in 2014, The Louise (Tym) Honnold and Martha (Tym) Johnson Scholarship was established in memory of Louise (Tym) Honnold and Martha (Tym) Johnson to provide scholarships to future teachers.

Eligible applicants must be a full-time senior student accepted to Eastern Illinois University majoring in either English with Teacher Certification or Social Science with Teacher Certification.

Eligible applicants must also have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0. Preference shall be given to applicants who plan to teach either subjects to junior or senior high school students. Financial need is a consideration. A recipient may only receive the scholarship one time.

The scholarship shall be announced in the spring semester and paid in the fall semester to Eastern Illinois University first to be applied against costs associated with the recipient(s) attending Eastern Illinois University.

The deadline for this scholarship is April 21, 2017.

To be completed by the applicant:

Name: _____

E number: _____

Local Address: _____

Permanent Address: _____

Phone Number _____

Major _____

Cumulative GPA _____

Total number of semester hours currently earned _____

Number of semester hours enrolled in for Spring 2017 _____

Anticipated number of semester hours to take for Fall 2017 _____

Are you in good academic and disciplinary standing? _____

Did you file the FAFSA for the 2016-2017 academic year? _____

Please attach a personal statement outlining your future teaching goals for subject you have been majoring in at EIU.

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

This application and personal statement must be received no later than April 21, 2017.

Please mail or return application to:

College of Arts and Humanities
Eastern Illinois University
Doudna Fine Arts Center, Room 2220
600 Lincoln Avenue
Charleston, IL 61920