2016-2017 PARENTS' MARITAL STATUS AND TAX FILING STATUS

Failure to complete this form will delay the processing of your aid.

The parents' reported 2015 tax filing status is inconsistent with the parents' reported FAFSA marital status. Although the reported tax filing status may accurately reflect the parent tax filing status for the 2015 tax return, we are required to verify this information.

According to the IRS, a tax payer must use a tax filing status of married filing jointly or married filing separately if they are married or considered married on December 31, 2015. If you were "unmarried" or "considered unmarried" on December 31, 2015, your tax filing status is single, or if you have a qualifying dependent you may file as head of household.

Note: Unmarried parents living together must provide both of your 2015 tax return transcripts. Consistent with the Supreme Court decision on the Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA), same-sex married couples must report both their information if they were LEGALLY married in a state or other jurisdiction (foreign country) that permits same-sex marriage. Unmarried same-sex LEGAL parents that are living together must report both their information as well.

Additional documentation or correction to the FAFSA may be required to resolve these discrepancies. Please verify the following information.

1. As of the date the FAFSA was completed, what was the student's legal parents' (biological and/or adoptive) marital status:
 - Never married
 - Unmarried and both parents living together
 - Married or remarried (Date of marriage: _____)
 - Divorced or separated (Date of divorce or separation: _____)
 - Widowed
2. For the 2015 tax year, what was the parents' Tax Filing Status:
 - Single
 - Head of household
 - Married—filed joint return
 - Married—filed separate return
 - Qualifying widow(er)
 - Don't know
3. If your marital status does not match your 2015 tax filing status, explain why:
