

Journal Gazette (Mattoon, IL)

September 19, 2009

Section: News

Page: a3

Memo: Published in the Journal Gazette and Times-Courier

No Headline

Local Report

CHARLESTON

H1N1 flu focus of Tuesday presentation

Area residents are invited to join Eastern Illinois University students and staff during an informational presentation - "H1N1: Facts Versus Fears."

Sheila Simons, associate professor of health studies; Dr. Sheila Baker, medical director of EIU's Health Service; and Lynette Drake, director of EIU Health Service, will discuss H1N1 and steps that can be taken by people to help protect their own health, as well as that of others.

Additionally, the speakers will address the many efforts taking place at EIU to help keep the campus population as safe as possible from both the seasonal and H1N1 flu. This event is to begin at 7 p.m. Tuesday in Lumpkin Auditorium (Room 2030), Lumpkin Hall, just south of Booth Library.

CHARLESTON

Zoners will resume amendment discussion

The Charleston zoning board's deliberations on proposed amendments to the city's zoning map will continue on Oct. 8.

The zoning board began its deliberations on Thursday after first taking public input on the proposed zoning map amendments on Aug. 11 and hearing a presentation from city officials regarding the amendments on July 23.

Board member Jim Wood said the city provided the board on Thursday with a list of approximately two dozen questions and concerns raised by property owners at the Aug. 11 hearing.

He said the board covered more than half a dozen of these items on Thursday and plans to go through the rest of the list, time permitting, at the next meeting.

SHELBYVILLE

Location changed for electronic recycling

An electronics recycling day will be from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Sept. 26 at the Shelby County Highway Department parking lot in Shelbyville.

The location of the event has changed.

For more information call 774-9555.

Copyright (c) 2009 Journal Gazette and Times-Courier. All rights reserved.