

WELCOME

Hello ladies!!! My name is Sarah! I am from the South side of Chicago, and I am currently a senior majoring in English. This is my first year as a Resident Assistant (RA), and I am totally looking forward to making our community awesome for the upcoming year!

As your RA, it will be my responsibility to answer any questions you may have. Rather it is for class, extracurricular, or even relationships, I will do my best to aid you with the best answers. I will also help build the community on the floor. I feel that in order for our floor to be successful, fun, and enjoyable, we have to have a strong community. So, it will be in my best interest to meet the needs of each of you so that our community grows to be both strong and comfortable. Last but certainly not least, I will help each of you set goals, and things of that sort. When I was a child, my Sunday school teacher told me that when one sets a goal, they are always working towards something. Meaning once they have set that goal, they are working to achieve it, and once they achieve that goal, they set another. It will be my responsibility to help you ladies in achieving those goals, and it will also be nice if we can work together and you help me achieve mine as well!

I am really excited that you ladies are living in Taylor Hall this year. Some of the great things you can expect is our in hall dining- we have a dining facility attached to our hall. There are four different laundry facilities, so you will always be able to wash your clothes. We have a really nice lobby area that is comfortable for either hanging out or studying. These are just a few great things to name the least!

To wrap things up ladies, as stated before I am really excited about this upcoming year and I hope that you each are as excited as I am. I do encourage that you try and contact your roommate over the summer, contacting them sooner will give you both a great feel of what the other person is like. If you have any questions, or just want to contact me, you can reach me at my EIU email which is: sporterliddell@eiu.edu. You can also catch me on my yahoo- screen name: sporter92. OR you can do what we all like most, and add me on Facebook.

I'll See You All on Move-In Day, THURSDAY, AUG. 18th @ 9:00am!
