

HEEEEEEEYYYYYYYYYYY YOUUUUUUUU GUUUUUUUUUYYYYYYYSSSSSS!!!!!!
(Goonies? Yes? No?)

Welcome to the 8th floor community for the 2011-2012 academic year! My name is Katie Kaye and I will be your Resident Assistant! I am a senior English major from the small-ish suburb of Lemont Illinois, about 45 minutes south of Chicago. This will be my third year as a R.A. at EIU and I'm so excited for the year to start!

I'm about to tell you a little about myself so if you are bored, keep reading! If you have A LOT to do right now, or just want to skip over my unnecessary rant about myself, go ahead and skip this next paragraph.

SOOOO a little about me... I consider myself to be a pretty easygoing person and I LOVE meeting new people. Over the summer I worked at Victoria's Secret to make some extra cash for the school year-but turns out that discount was extremely tempting and I spent almost all that I made... oops. Needless to say, I have a vast assortment of lotions and body splash in case your elbows or knees get a little chapped 😊. I just ran my first race ever this summer! I ran a 5K and I absolutely LOVED it. I have never been a runner, I was a dancer for years, but running just wasn't my thing. I was reading last spring about how healthy it is for you, so I decided to make it my summer goal to run a race. So now that THAT goal is accomplished, I hope to take it a step further and run a 10K by the end of next summer, so I will be doing early morning/late night/anytime runs if you wanna join! I'm a super beginner (aka- slow poke) so if you're a pro, don't judge me, and if you WANT to start running, you are totally welcome! I love to read, and write. I am a total fan of TrueBlood, Extreme Couponing, and the Venture Bros. I LOVE all movies and hope that we can have some floor movie nights!

PHEW! That was boring. I did bring up ONE good point however, FLOOR PROGRAMS! I know that being in an upperclassman, suite style building may come with a lot of preconceived notions, but I am here to tell you to FORGET THEM! I want our floor to become a second family. I want to do programs that get everyone out of their rooms, breaking from studying, and enjoying the last year(s) at EIU. So please! Any ideas you have-EMAIL them to me! I can start planning our fun-filled year now! (wow...total nerd.)

So enjoy these last weeks of summer! Have fun! Be safe! If you have ANY questions about Stevenson, EIU, our floor, me, feel free to email me at kbkaye@eiu.edu I would also like to find everyone on Facebook, but since I do not have my floor roster yet, and I myself am not searchable, please email me with your name so I can find you! We can make a floor page this way also! I AM SO EXCITED TO MEET YOU!!!!!
