

Hey Lawson Ladies!

My name is Brittany Booth and I will be your Resident Assistant for the 2011-12 school year. This will be my first year as an RA and I am so excited to get to meet all of you.

This is my second year as a student at Eastern Illinois University; I'm a sophomore communication disorders and sciences major. While at EIU, I'm involved in Epsilon Sigma Alpha a registered service organization on campus as well as Big Brothers Big Sisters. I was born and raised in a small 5,000 population town in Southern Illinois, and I'm spending my summer volunteering at church camp, lounging by the pool, and taking online classes.

As your RA, I will try my best to answer any questions you have throughout the school year. When I'm in my room I'll keep my door open as much as possible and you're always welcome to stop by and chat. I'll provide you with programs and activities that will allow you to build friendships with the other ladies in our learning community.

One thing I suggest to do before you get here is to get to know your roommate, add her on Facebook, call her, and get to know each other before moving in, it will make the move in process a lot easier. It's also a good idea to figure out who's bringing the major items like the fridge and TV.

Have a wonderful summer ladies and feel free to contact me with any questions that you may have, that's what I'm here for ☺ bebooth@eiu.edu. I can't wait; it's going to be a great year! One last thing ladies don't forget movie in day is Thursday Aug.18 @ 9:00am.

Your Resident Assistant,

Brittany Booth
