

THE RICHARD L. CROUSE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP IN SPANISH

The Department of Foreign Languages generally awards the Richard L. Crouse Scholarship on an annual basis to a deserving student in Spanish.

The following basic criteria will be applied to applications. Applicants must:

- * be a full-time student at Eastern Illinois University, with a major in Foreign Languages, concentration Spanish
- * have a GPA of 3.00 or better in Spanish
- * Sophomore, Junior or Senior status after the close of the term in which the scholarship is awarded
- * have a keen interest in Spanish as demonstrated by extra-curricular activities and classroom excellence and enthusiasm

All criteria will be interpreted according to the discretion of the Scholarship Committee. In judging a scholarship candidate, the Committee will consider a student's potential for making a contribution in the area of Foreign Languages as well as evidence of academic achievement, responsible character, sense of purpose, growth, and participation in departmental activities. Significant contribution to foreign languages or the department may be a deciding factor, if all other criteria are judged equal.

Students wishing to apply should request a Richard L. Crouse Memorial Scholarship Application in Coleman 1159 or contact:

Stephen A. Canfield, Chair
Department of Foreign Languages
Eastern Illinois University
600 Lincoln Avenue
Charleston, IL 61920

Completed applications are due in the main office (1159 Coleman) no later than 3:30pm March 25th, 2009.

The amount of the scholarship will depend on the funds available. Generally, the award will be no less than $250 and no more than $1000 in any one year.

Students may apply at the end of their freshman, sophomore or junior years. A recipient shall be eligible to apply for, and receive the award again provided she/he continues to meet the criteria stated above.

Unless special arrangements are made in advance, awards will not be distributed until after the second week of the Fall semester following a candidate's selection. Students who do not return to EIU or enroll in an approved study abroad program in the Fall will forfeit the award.

The award must be used to cover academic costs, which includes study abroad programs whose primary purpose is to improve proficiency in Spanish.

Scholarship winners are expected to perform some service for the department during the academic year following receipt of the award. This service may take the form of unpaid tutoring, helping with the language clubs, honor societies, fund-raising, or some other appropriate service in or for the department. Those who do not fulfill this requirement will be ineligible for further departmental aid.
