EIU ALUM NAMED TO NATIONAL CANCER ADVISORY BOARD President George W. Bush has named EIU alum Robert Ingram ('65), from North Carolina to serve on the National Cancer Advisory Board for a six-year term.

Ingram began his career in the pharmaceutical industry as a professional sales representative and rose through a series of roles with increasing responsibility to ultimately become CEO/Chairman of GlaxoWellcome. He co-lead the merger and integration that formed GlaxoSmithKline, the world's second largest pharmaceutical company. Upon reaching the mandatory retirement age of 60, he was asked by the Board to serve as Vice Chairman Pharmaceuticals, GSK. Bob serves as Chairman, OSI Pharmaceuticals, Inc. He also serves on the Board of Directors of Allergan Inc, Edwards Lifesciences Corporation, Lowe's Companies, Inc, Nortel Networks, Valeant Pharmaceuticals International and the Wachovia Corporation. In 2000, Beta Gamma Sigma honored him with a National Award.

As an alum committed to ensuring that Eastern maintains its high standards for a quality education, Ingram has acted as an executive-in-residence in the School of Business and served on the School of Business' Business Advisory Board in previous years. He has been the recipient of several distinguished alumnus awards at Eastern.
