

Which Character Am I?

Characters:

Pig

Cow

Sheep

Mice

Farmer Brown

Duck

Chickens

Dog

Cat

Directions: Place your students into two different groups. There will be two groups playing the same game. Write your characters names down on separate pieces of paper. Tape each sheet with a character name on it to the back of each student who is playing. The student does not know who they are, but they must ask around their group using “yes” or “no” questions in order to figure out which character they are.

Click, Clack, Boo! Sound Effects Box

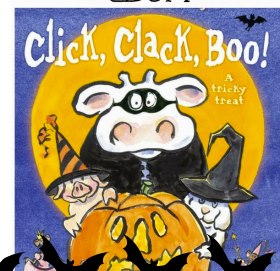

For this activity, you'll be making a sound effects box so that your kids can participate in reading the story with you.

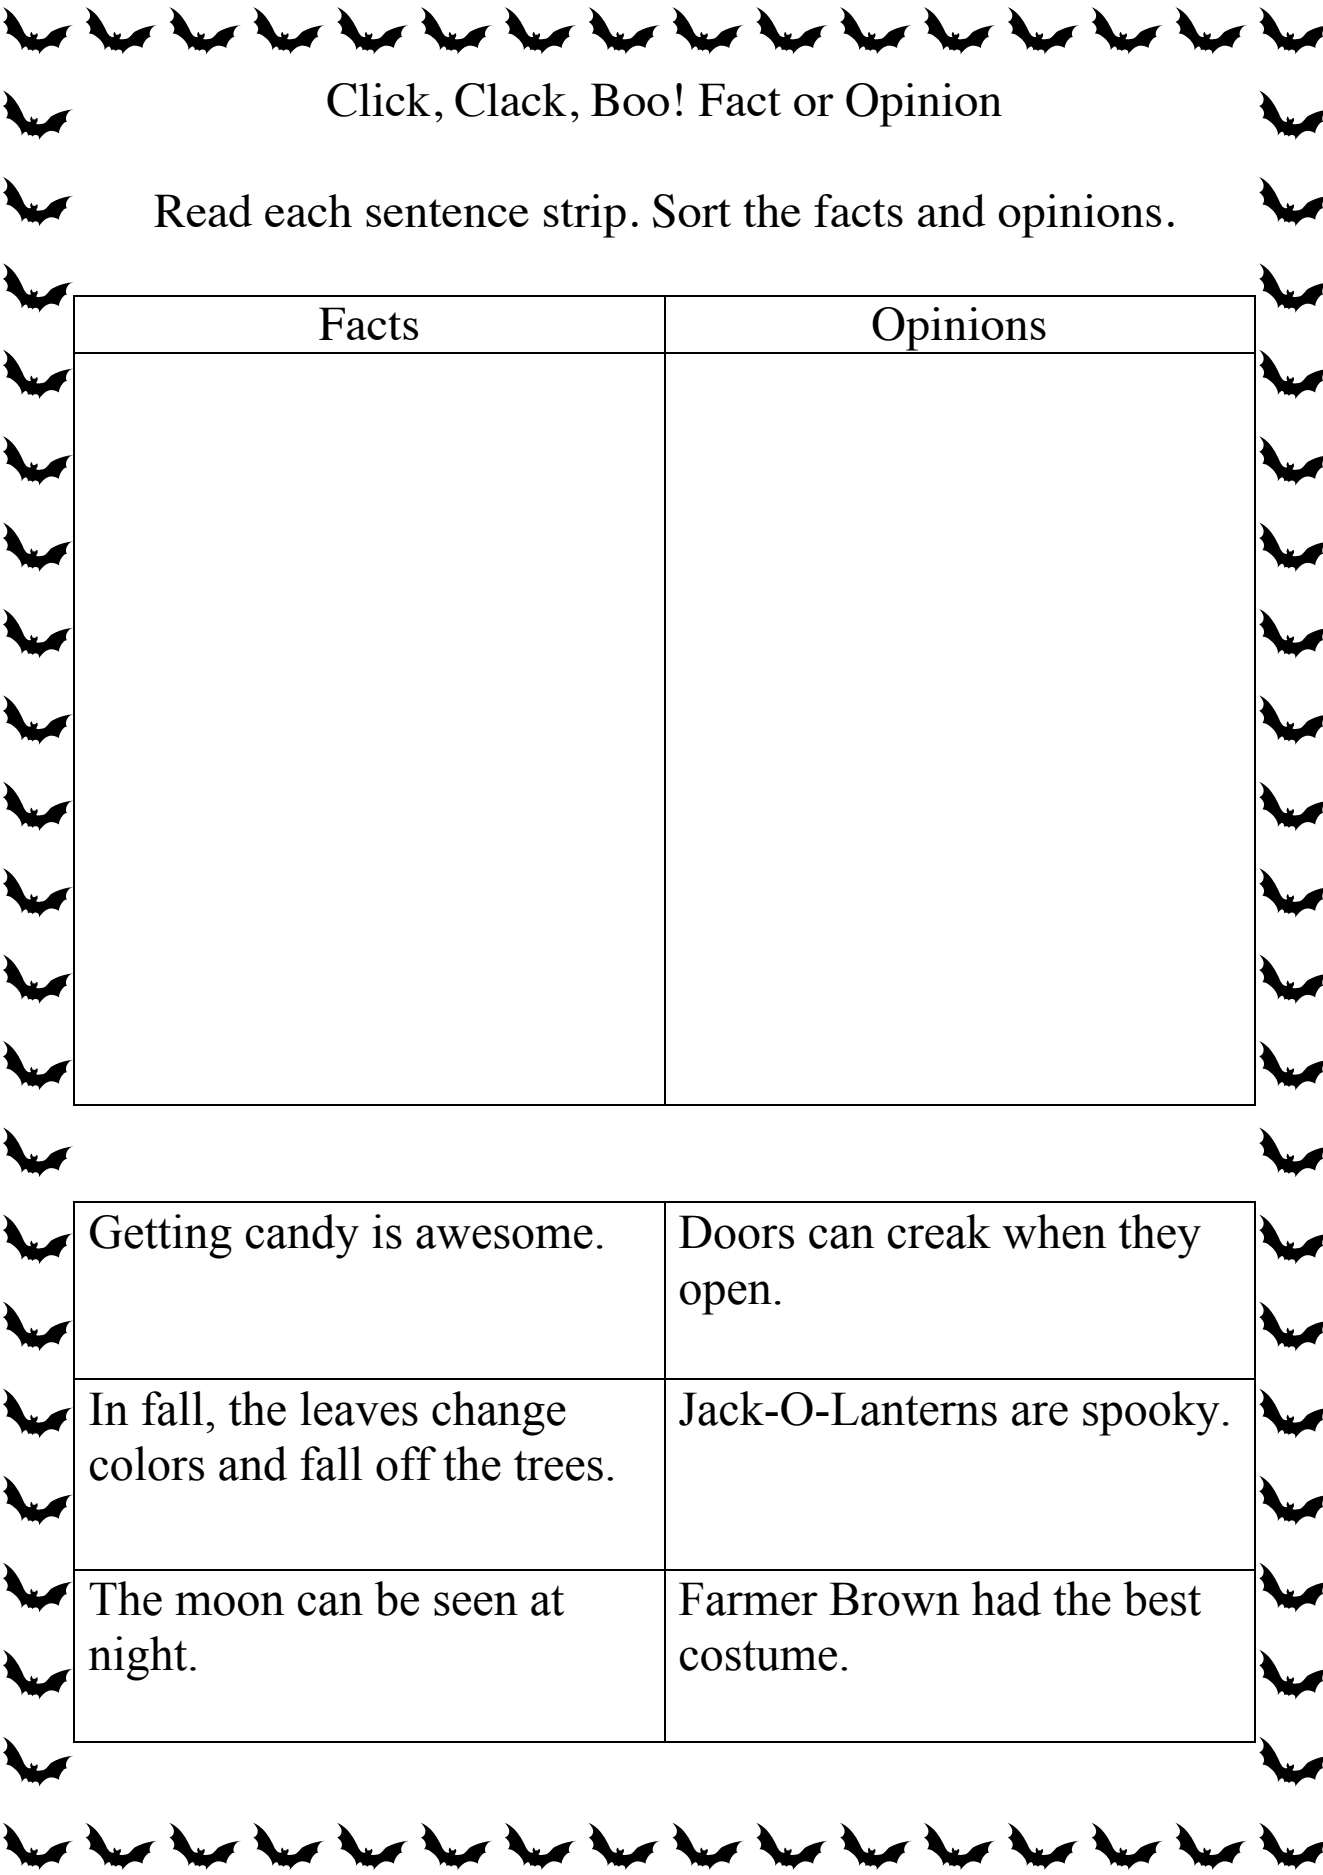

What you'll need:

- fake leaves (or real dried leaves, but be prepared for a mess!)
- 2 wooden blocks to tap together
- a Lego or Duplo door or window
- a rubber duck
- a box or basket to hold it all

SOUND EFFECTS BOX

Click, Clack, Boo! Fact or Opinion

Read each sentence strip. Sort the facts and opinions.

| Facts | Opinions |
|-------|----------|
| | |

| | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| Getting candy is awesome. | Doors can creak when they open. |
| In fall, the leaves change colors and fall off the trees. | Jack-O-Lanterns are spooky. |
| The moon can be seen at night. | Farmer Brown had the best costume. |

Click, Clack, Boo! Character Costume Match

Draw a line from the character to the costume they were.

