Mr. Tim McCollum, President of the Alumni Association, thanked the Board members for their time and discussed recent contributions that the Alumni Association has made to the university. Some of these are the Alumni Clock Tower, a three-year, $75,000 commitment to the Alumni Quad, and corporate sponsorship of Athletics and WEIU. Mr. McCollum mentioned the Livingston Lord scholarships, which are considered the university’s most prestigious awards, and the only awards recognized at Commencement. He reported that eight alumni were honored with special awards during Homecoming weekend, and he reported that the Alumni Association has a goal of assisting the Alumni Services Office with conducting at least 35 reception or reunion events annually. Mr. McCollum stated that the Alumni Association, in conjunction with the EIU Athletic Department, plans to award athletic letters to female student athletes who were not recognized by the university prior to 1980.
