Course Description: A seminar approach to Sports Medicine as it pertains to Athletic Training, including but not limited to administration, legal and ethical matters, confidentiality, budget processes, insurance, facility planning, design and maintenance, successful job search techniques as well as current issues and trends affecting the profession.

Pre-Requisites: KSS 2130, KSS 2135, & KSS 2136

Course Objectives: By the end of the semester, the student will be able to:

- Discuss the administrative processes associated with the Athletic Training profession.
- Discuss current confidentiality issues associated with healthcare.
- Discuss and demonstrate a working knowledge of budget processes in various Athletic Training workplace settings.
- Discuss current types of healthcare insurance available and how it impacts the Athletic Training profession.
- Discuss and demonstrate the processes involved with facility planning, design and maintenance as it is related to the Athletic Training profession.
- Demonstrate the ability to apply the skills necessary for a successful job search.
- Discuss current issues and trends that are affecting the Athletic Training profession.

Methods for assessing student's achievement of learning objectives:

Your final grade will be determined by a combination of class projects, tests, and current event discussions.

Classroom Assignments:

1. Athletic Training room design	15%
2. Budget project	15%
3. Resume/Interviews/Job Search	15%
4. Tests	35%
5. Final Exam	20%

General Information:

You are expected to be thoroughly prepared for each class. Thoroughly prepared is defined as:

1. Having all materials, including assignments, needed for class before entering the class.
2. Having sufficiently read the assigned readings before class to verbally discuss the content and participate in class.
3. Having formulated questions and presenting these questions in class when information from readings and assignments is unclear.

Use of electronic devices such as iPods, MP3 players, and cell phones, etc is prohibited during class. This includes texting. All phones must be turned off or silenced and placed in your backpack or on the desk in front of you. If your phone rings, I reserve the right to answer the phone and speak to or text the person trying to contact you. If your phone rings a 2nd time, your overall grade will be reduced by 5%. Should the pattern continue, it will be recommended that you drop the course.
