STRASBURG

WELCOME!

TO THE TWELFTH SEASON

Although Vivian Vance starring in The Marriage-Go-Round on May 25th marks the first show of the 1968 spring-summer-fall season at The Little Theatre-On The Square, this production will be the ninth opening for producer Guy S. Little, Jr. this year. Immediately after presenting Rosemary Prinz in A Girl Could Get Lucky in December-January in Sullivan, Mr. Little left for Phoenix, Arizona where he was engaged as producer for the 21st season at the famous Sombbrero Playhouse. While in Phoenix, Mr. Little presented Howard Keel, Ray Walston, Kathryn Crosby, Mildred Natwick, Cornelia Otis Skinner and other greats of American show business in addition to Ann Sothern, Robert Cummings and Vivian Vance. . . all who will appear in Sullivan this season. Mr. Little returned to Sullivan in time to remodel the balcony of the theatre, removing the old projection booth and elevating the seats; and installing a new curved stage curtain—all to celebrate the opening of the 12th season in Sullivan.

Long before Mr. Little opened the Grand Theatre back in 1957, he hoped and planned that someday he would have a theatre where musicals and plays could be presented. He got his first job in professional theatre as an apprentice at the Keene, New Hampshire Summer Theatre in 1951 and worked the two following summers at the Gateway Musical Playhouse near Atlantic City.

After graduation from the University of Miami, Mr. Little took graduate courses at Columbia University and The American Theatre Wing before returning to central Illinois in the spring of 1957 to look for a theatre location.

Not having success locating a suitable theatre in any of the larger cities in downstate Illinois, Mr. Little decided to lease the movie house in his native Sullivan. Since the opening of Brigadoon on July 3, 1957, Mr. Little has presented 112 major productions—both plays and musicals—featuring many outstanding stars and supporting casts from Broadway, Hollywood, TV and Opera. The first season ran nine weeks and had an attendance of 8,000. The Little Theatre-On The Square was open for twenty-four weeks last year and had an attendance of 80,000. . . a most gratifying increase! The Little Theatre-On The Square also has a Children's Theatre which presents productions for young audiences on Saturdays during late June, July and August. Mr. Little strongly believes that stock should be a proving-ground and workshop for young talent to develop as actors-singers-dancers and technicians. Thirty outstanding apprentices are accepted each year from over 100 applicants; these young students who have come from most every state in the country, learn every phase of theatre operation while they are working towards membership in Equity, the actor's union. After experience in Sullivan, many have gone on to successful careers on Broadway and TV.

In addition to his productions in Sullivan, Mr. Little managed the Piccolo Playhouse in Joliet and has had touring productions that have played leading theatres in Michigan, Ohio, Colorado, Connecticut and New York. Mr. Little works year around booking outstanding stars such as June Allyson, Dennis Weaver, John Payne, Margaret O'Brien, Julia Meade, Linda Darnell, Marie Wilson, Eddie Bracken, Joe E. Brown, Margaret Truman, Cesar Romero, Mercedes McCambridge, Andy Devine, Gardner McKay, Alan Young and Carl Betz.

Mr. Little has directed many of the productions, designed and built the scenery, and has appeared in many of the shows. His favorite roles include Mr. Snow in Carousel, Lt. Cable in South Pacific and Kenneth in Call Me Madam.

Guy met his wife, Jerili, when they were both studying theatre at the University of Miami. Jerili has starred in many productions in Sullivan and on tour and has established a following wherever she has performed. The Littles have been married fourteen years and have two children, Vanessa, age twelve and Sean, age six. Both children have been active in the Sullivan productions.

The operation of a star theatre for twelve years in a town with a population of less than 4,000 has been called "the miracle of Sullivan" by theatre historians. Guy S. Little, Jr. gratefully salutes the faithful central Illinois audiences who have patronized The Little Theatre-On The Square since 1957.

MEMBER AMERICAN GEM SOCIETY

Trust

When buying precious gems and fine jewelry, you must place yourself in the hands of a trusted jeweler, for few outside of the profession either know or understand the fine nuances of gemology or gem value. How to find him? Since 1934, membership in the American Gem Society has been symbolic of fine, trusted jewelers throughout the United States and Canada. This firm, like only some 900 others, is proud to claim this distinction. May we welcome you soon?

Mary Lynn began her career at the age of eleven at the Shubert Theatre in Chicago playing the role of Louisa in the National Company of Sound of Music starring Florence Henderson. For one and a half years she was with the company both in Chicago and on the road.
