Re: Associate Graduate Faculty Appointment

The History Department requests that Dr. Trevor Burrows be granted Associate Graduate Faculty Status. Dr. Burrows holds a PhD in American History from Purdue University (2018). Dr. Burrows has been asked to teach a graduate seminar in Summer 2023, as no tenure/tenure-track graduate faculty were available to teach this course in US history. As you will see from his attached CV, Dr. Burrow's doctoral research qualifies him to teach this course. Since earning his doctorate, Dr. Burrows has been deeply engaged in digital humanities and the scholarship of teaching.

Thank you.
