Dr. Carlsward moved and Dr. Konkle seconded the motion to approve the proposal. Dr. Allan presented the proposal and replied to questions from the committee. The proposal was approved unanimously with minor edits.

IV. Other Business

A. The committee held an election of new vice-chair. Dr. Pakey had previously nominated all eligible candidates. Dr. Kidd-Marshall expressed concern about serving as vice-chair due to her travel schedule. A secret ballot was cast and the ballots read by Dr. Pakey. The results were tabulated by Ms. Lynch and the first vote led to a 4-4 tie between Dr. Allan and Dr. Konkle with one vote for Dr. Anderson. A second secret ballot was held and the results were six votes for Dr. Allan and three votes for Dr. Konkle. Dr. Allan was elected vice-chair for the 2012-2013 academic year.

B. New committee members for next year were discussed. We had previously been advised by Physics that their new representative would be Dr. Aryajinejad and Biological Sciences has elected Dr. Tucker. Ms. Lynch announced that Economics will be sending Dr. Dan Hickman as their representative. We have not yet heard who will be representing Mathematics and Computer Science.

C. Ms. Lynch announced the first meeting of next year will be on August 31, 2012.

D. Dr. New Freeland brought to the attention of the committee a proposal at CAA to revise the general education requirements to allow study abroad to be an alternative to senior seminar. CAA is to consider the proposal at their meeting on April 26.

The meeting adjourned at 3:13 PM on the motion of Dr. Carlsward and second of Dr. Laingen.
