Class Attendance and Participation (10%)

Students will be expected to contribute actively and positively to the class discussion. Actively engaging in discussion about ideas and concepts is one means of learning new material and considering one's position with regard to those ideas and concepts. Participation in the class is designed to help students develop verbal and listening skills by encouraging active involvement in the learning process.

Book Review Presentation and Summary Paper (25%)

Students will review and present on one leadership book. The presentation will be approximately 15 minutes and include PowerPoint and handout. Following the presentations, students will summarize all the presentations in an APA style 5 page paper. The paper should summarize the presentations for common themes and how college student affairs professionals can apply those themes in Higher Education.

Class Project (30%)

Students will be assigned to groups of three –five people to develop a project that will help make the CSA Program at EIU a more viable program. Suggested topics may include 1) develop a CSA Newsletter, 2) CSA Summer Reunion, 3) Develop Power Point/ Slides for CSA DAYS, 4) Orientation and Survey of new Students, 5) work with Student Affairs Pre-Professionals (SAPP), or 6) Revising CSA Student Handbook). Groups will complete a 5-7 page APA style paper on the project and present the findings to class using PowerPoint and handouts.

Case Study (15%)

Students will be placed in three groups and will be responsible for presenting a leadership case assigned by the instructor. This case study presentation must include relevant facts and problems associated with the case, researched solutions (minimum of 10 references) and ethical considerations that support a just and sustainable practice.

Chronicle of Higher Education Article Reaction Paper (10%)

Students will review and write a one page reaction on 8 different articles on leadership from the Chronicle of Higher Education.

Final Exam (10%)

There will be a final on selected material presented in class.

3. Explain how the instructor will determine students' grades for the course:

Grades will be based on the following criteria:

Class Attendance and Participation	10%
Book Review Presentation and Summary Paper	25%
Class Project	30%
Case Study	15%
Chronicle of Higher Education Article Reaction Paper	10%
Final	10%
Total	100%

4. For technology-delivered and other nontraditional-delivered courses/sections, address the following:

N/A

- Describe how the format/technology will be used to support and assess students' achievement of the specified learning objectives:
- Describe how the integrity of student work will be assured:
- Describe provisions for and requirements of instructor-student and student-student interaction, including the kinds of technologies that will be used to support the interaction (e.g., e-mail, web-based discussions, computer conferences, etc.):

5. For courses numbered 4750-4999, specify additional or more stringent requirements for students enrolling for graduate credit. These include: N/A

- course objectives;
- projects that require application and analysis of the course content; and
- separate methods of evaluation for undergraduate and graduate students.

6. If applicable, indicate whether this course is writing-active, writing-intensive, or writing-centered, and describe how the course satisfies the criteria for the type of writing course identified. N/A

PART III: OUTLINE OF THE COURSE

Provide a week-by-week outline of the course's content. Specify units of time (e.g., for a 3-0-3 course, 45 fifty-minute class periods over 15 weeks) for each major topic in the outline. Provide clear and sufficient details about content and procedures so that possible questions of overlap with other courses can be addressed. For technology-delivered or other nontraditional-delivered courses/sections, explain how the course content "units" are sufficiently equivalent to the traditional on-campus semester hour units of time described above.

Outline of the Course: 15 weeks of 150 minutes in class meetings.

Week	Lecture Topic
1	Introduction to Course
2	Leadership Theory; Becoming a Leader
3	Leadership Theory Cont.
4	Leadership Styles and the Importance of a Positive Attitude

5	Politics in Higher Education.
6	Recognizing Leadership Traits and Developing Leadership Skills
7	Book Review Presentations
8	Book Review Presentations
9	Case Studies
11	Decision Making Theory and Practice
12	Consensus Building in Higher Education; Overcoming Obstacles
13	Managing Conflict
14	Addressing Ethics in Leadership
15	Class Project Presentations

PART IV: PURPOSE AND NEED

1. Explain the department's rationale for developing and proposing the course.

This is a required course for the M.S. in College Student Affairs. It is also a competency covered in American College Personnel Association (ACPA) and the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators (NASPA) Professional Competencies.

- a. If this is a general education course, you also must indicate the segment of the general education program into which it will be placed, and describe how the course meets the requirements of that segment. N/A
- b. If the course or some sections of the course may be technology delivered, explain why. N/A

2. Justify the level of the course and any course prerequisites, co-requisites, or registration restrictions.

This is a required course for the M.S. in College Student Affairs. It is also a competency covered in American College Personnel Association (ACPA) and the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators (NASPA) Professional Competencies.

3. If the course is similar to an existing course or courses, justify its development and offering.

- a. If the contents substantially duplicate those of an existing course, the new proposal should be discussed with the appropriate chairpersons, deans, or curriculum committees and their responses noted in the proposal. None at graduate level
- b. Cite course(s) to be deleted if the new course is approved. If no deletions are planned, note the exceptional need to be met or the curricular gap to be filled.

4. Impact on Program(s):

- a. For undergraduate programs, specify whether this course will be required for a major or minor or used as an approved elective.
- b. For graduate programs, specify whether this course will be a core requirement for all candidates in a degree or certificate program or an approved elective.
Required for graduate students admitted to M.S. in College Student Affairs.

If the proposed course changes a major, minor, or certificate program in or outside of the department, you must submit a separate proposal requesting that change along with the course proposal. Provide a copy of the existing program in the current catalog with the requested changes noted. N/A

PART V: IMPLEMENTATION

1. Faculty member(s) to whom the course may be assigned:

If this is a graduate course and the department does not currently offer a graduate program, it must document that it employs faculty qualified to teach graduate courses.

Qualified Graduate Faculty in the Department of Counseling and Student Development.

2. Additional costs to students:

Include those for supplemental packets, hardware/software, or any other additional instructional, technical, or technological requirements. (Course fees must be approved by the President's Council.)

No additional costs to students.

3. Text and supplementary materials to be used (Include publication dates):

Northhouse, P.G. (2012). Introduction to leadership concepts and practices (2nd ed.). Sage Publications.

PART VI: COMMUNITY COLLEGE TRANSFER

If the proposed course is a 1000- or 2000-level course, state either, "A community college course may be judged equivalent to this course" OR "A community college course will not be judged equivalent to this course." A community college course will not be judged equivalent to a 3000- or 4000-level course but may be accepted as a substitute; however, upper-division credit will not be awarded.

N/A

PART VII: APPROVALS

Date approved by the department or school: 1/23/13

Date approved by the college curriculum committee: 2/25/13

Date approved by the Honors Council (if this is an honors course):

Date approved by CAA: CGS:

*In writing-active courses, frequent, brief writing activities and assignments are required. Such activities -- some of which are to be graded -- might include five-minute in-class writing assignments, journal keeping, lab reports, essay examinations, short papers, longer papers, or a variety of other writing-to-learn activities of the instructor's invention. Writing assignments and activities in writing-active courses are designed primarily to assist students in mastering course content, secondarily to strengthen students' writing skills. In writing-intensive courses, several writing assignments and writing activities are required. These assignments and activities, which are to be spread over the course of the semester, serve the dual purpose of strengthening writing skills and deepening understanding of course content. At least one writing assignment is to be revised by the student after it has been read and commented on by the instructor. In writing-intensive courses, students' writing should constitute no less than 35% of the final course grade. In writing-centered courses (English 1001G, English 1002G, and their honors equivalents), students learn the principles and the process of writing in all of its stages, from inception to completion. The quality of students' writing is the principal determinant of the course grade. The minimum writing requirement is 20 pages (5,000 words).
