Re: Request for Executive Action from the Department of History

Action Requested:

Deletion of the following courses from the Graduate Catalog:

- HIS 4810, "19th Century Europe"
- HIS 4820, "The World in the 20th Century"
- HIS 4830, "Eastern Europe from World War I to the present"
- HIS 4840, "Europe since 1945"
- HIS 4910, "The Foundation of the American Constitutional and Political System"
- HIS 4911, "History of American Violence"
- HIS 4970, "History of Ideas in America"
- HIS 5010, "Leadership in Museums I: Administration of Historical Organizations"
- HIS 5011, "Leadership in Museums II: Professional Development"
- HIS 5020, "Historical Interpretation"
- HIS 5050, "American Architecture"
- HIS 5060, "Historic Preservation in the United States"
- HIS 5090, "Care and Management of Historical Artifacts"
- HIS 5110, "History Museum Exhibits I"
- HIS 5111, "History Museum Exhibits II"
- HIS 5113, "Digital Applications in Museums and Archives II"
- HIS 5310, "Seminar in Social, Intellectual, or Cultural History"
- HIS 5330, "Material Life and Decorative Arts in America"
- HIS 59801, "Internship in Historical Administration I"
- HIS 5980, "Internship in Historical Administration II"

Rationale:

The courses listed here have not been taught in many semesters and will never be taught, given current staffing and developments in the discipline. Furthermore, several of these courses were offered exclusively for the now-defunct Historical Administration Option of the History MA Program.

Catalog Language Changes:

None.

Effective Year/Term:

Spring 2021
