Re: Request for Executive Action from the School of Communication and Journalism

Action Requested:

Allow online delivery for the following courses:

- CMN 5160, "Seminar in Interpersonal Communication"
- CMN 5260, "Science and Technical Communication"
- CMN 5720, "Seminar in Public Relations"
- CMN 5550, "Special Topics in Communication Studies"

Rationale:

These courses have been regularly offered in the School's on-campus program. Adding an online delivery mode allows their graduate students more flexibility in scheduling their courses. Online delivery also allows the School to offer these courses to their online MA and Certificate in Communication Processes students.

Catalog Language Changes:

None.

Effective Year/Term:

Spring 2021
