

LUMPKIN COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND APPLIED SCIENCES
EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

TO: Council on Graduate Studies
FROM: Mahyar Izadi, Interim Dean
SUBJECT: EXECUTIVE ACTION
DATE: October 14, 2010

The School of Business recently approved the following curriculum proposal which I support:

Prerequisite Change for FIN 4820, International Finance
(see attached memo – effective Spring 2011)

Att.

- c. C. Noll, Chair, School of Business
- C. Roszkowski, Associate Chair, School of Business

LUMPKIN COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND APPLIED SCIENCES
EXECUTIVE ACTION REQUEST

TO: Mary Hennig, Certification Officer

FROM: Cheryl Noll, Chair
School of Business

DATE: October 7, 2010

Please forward the following item –which was approved by the School of Business Curriculum at its regular meeting on April 21, 2010 – for executive action.

ACTION REQUESTED: Modify the prerequisites for FIN 4820 International Finance to allow students to take either ECN 3860 International Economics OR BUS 3200 International Business as a prerequisite.

RATIONALE: The finance faculty have determined that the background concepts and knowledge necessary for FIN 4820 can be attained in either ECN 3860 or BUS 3200.

EFFECTIVE DATE: (i.e.: Fall 20XX, Spring 20XX): Spring 2011

Current Catalog Copy:

FIN 4820 - International Finance. (3-0-3) F. Financial aspects of operating multinational firms. Topics included are international markets, exchange rate theories, foreign trade financing, and both raising funds and investing resources internationally. Credits: 3
Prerequisites & Notes BUS 3710 with a grade of C or better, FIN 3730, ECN 3860 and admission to the School of Business or permission of the Associate Chair. WI

New Catalog Copy:

FIN 4820 - International Finance. (3-0-3) F. Financial aspects of operating multinational firms. Topics included are international markets, exchange rate theories, foreign trade financing, and both raising funds and investing resources internationally. Credits: 3
Prerequisites: BUS 3710 with a grade of C or better, FIN 3730, BUS 3200 or ECN 3860, and admission to the School of Business or permission of the Associate Chair. WI