

LUMPKIN COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND APPLIED SCIENCES
EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

TO: Council on Graduate Studies

FROM: Mahyar Izadi, Dean

SUBJECT: EXECUTIVE ACTION

DATE: July 24, 2012

FCS 5230 – Change from a 1 to 2 credit hour course to a 1 to 3 credit hour course
(effective immediately for fall 2012 registration) see attached request

Att.

c. K. Kennedy-Hagan, Chair, School of Family and Consumer Sciences

LUMPKIN COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND APPLIED SCIENCES
EXECUTIVE ACTION REQUEST

TO: Mary Hennig, Certification Officer

FROM: Karla Kennedy-Hagan, Chair - School of Family and Consumer Sciences

DATE: July 23, 2012

ACTION REQUESTED:

There are 2 graduate Special Topic courses, Societal Aspects of Aging FCS 5230H-005 and Immersion in Long Term Care FCS 5230I-008 that are being offered in the Fall, 2012. Each course is designed as 3 semester hours. Currently, FCS Special Topic courses are limited to 1 or 2 semester hours per course. I request that the semester hours be expanded to a range of 1 or 3 or 3.

RATIONALE:

Societal Aspects of Aging FCS 5230H-005 and Immersion in Long Term Care FCS 5230I-008 are both 3 semester hour courses.

EFFECTIVE DATE: (i.e.: Fall 20XX, Spring 20XX):

Request that the change be effective immediately.

CURRENT CATALOG COPY:

FCS 5230 - Special Topics in Family and Consumer Sciences.
(1-0-1) or (2-0-2) Study of special topics in Family and Consumer Sciences with variable course content. Intensive study of topics through readings, reports, and group discussions.
Prerequisites & Notes
Permission of the instructor.
Credits: 1 or 2

PROPOSED CATALOG COPY:

FCS 5230 - Special Topics in Family and Consumer Sciences.
(1-0-1) or (2-0-2) or (3-0-3) Study of special topics in Family and Consumer Sciences with variable course content. Intensive study of topics through readings, reports, and group discussions.
Prerequisites & Notes
Permission of the instructor.
Credits: 1 or 2 or 3