In Attendance: Jacy Ghast, Andrew Kerins, Jeanne Lord, Melissa Maulding, Tony Oliver, Heidi Ramrattan, Laurie DeRuiter-Willems
Absent: William Comstock
Guest: Dean Ryan Hendrickson

- I. Dean Hendrickson Discussed the following items with the Committee:
 - Redden Grants (handout)
 - Professional Development travel funds (distributed to chairs—must be a speaker at a conference or the officer of the organization)
 - Wolf Service Award (starts spring 2022, guidelines can be found on the CHHS website)
 - Hanner Professional Development Award ($2,000—to be given in $500 increments, not to be used for travel to a conference)
 - Research Conference: Will not have a College research conference this year. Will partner with the Honor’s College this spring.
 - Student Impact Grants: On CFR Website
 - CFR grants: A viable source of support
 - Special CU Pool: To support the research of Unit A tenured faculty
 - CFR summer research grants---reminder that those are available

- II. Tony Oliver announced that he would be sending the Redden Grant applications to us tomorrow. We are to review and rank them individually and then we will meet as the Research and Scholarship Committee to rank collectively and send those rankings to Dean Hendrickson. Our next meeting is September 7, 2021 at 1:00 in KH 1418.

- III. Election of new officers
 - Chair: Dr. Laurie DeRuiter-Willems---Pending
