Communication

1. CASL Presentation: Melissa Jones-Bromenshenkel serves on the Committee for the Assessment of Student Learning (CASL). She presented assessment data for the University Learning Goals (speaking, global citizenship, writing, and critical thinking). College assessment summaries were also provided for both the undergraduate and graduate programs.
2. Study Abroad Presentation: Wendy Williamson presented information on a proposal that is pending with CAA to revise the degree requirements to include an integrative experience. This would be satisfied with either a senior seminar or the combination of an EIU study abroad program and STA 4000G. Discussion followed the presentation and many questions were raised. The committee is supportive of the proposal in theory, but there were many questions and concerns that were not adequately addressed.

Introduction

Nicole Ward was introduced as the new student representative from Special Education.

Dean's Report

All of the ELE course proposals were recently approved by CAA and CGS. The program revisions will be presented at COTE soon. Dean Jackman extended her appreciation to the committee for their attention to these proposals.

The meeting was adjourned at 3:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Bonnie Wilson
