

Revision to the Adult Education Minor

Rationale: A new major in Adult and Community Education was recently developed by the Department of Secondary and Foundations. The Department proposes to replace the current set of courses in the existing Adult Education Minor with a designated set of newly-developed courses in the B.S. in Adult and Community Education major. This will enable scheduling efficiencies for the Department, as well as enable students undertaking the minor to take courses that are more up to date in the field.
