- a. Group Consultation, 1 client videos & Attendance - This class will function in a group supervision/case consultation format. Students will be expected to attend and actively participate in all class sessions. Group supervision requires a safe environment in which students feel free to discuss your professional and personal concerns as they relate to your development as counselors. Therefore, all students will be expected to maintain standards of confidentiality. Each student will prepare for class and participate in offering and inviting constructive and supportive feedback to and from peers. He/she will also be required to do one Class Presentation which he/she will share one counseling video with a client during class. A consent is the only paperwork required. Class participation is exemplified by being punctual, professional, and responding to appropriate feedback. Case consultation also involves the student's ability to conceptualize client case histories and to provide appropriate feedback to classmates.
- b. Case Presentation with a Video of Client - Students will acquire client and parent video consent and provide a 10 minute taped portion of a counseling session to be played in class, type out a full transcription of both the counselor and client speeches, and write a brief case summary along with any relevant diversity issues (outline format/no set page limit). Students will include sections covering identifying information, observational data (physical appearance, affect information), developmental history (abusive situations, behavioral problems, emotional or economic concerns), previous history of treatment and results (previous illnesses, hospitalizations, medication prescribed, counseling received, etc.), presenting problem (referring agent, symptoms), present life situation (grades, honors/sp.ed, relationships, social and leisure activities), and plan (brief statement about treatment recommendations, goals, etc.) Students will provide the instructor with a copy of the video consent form.
- c. Graduation/End of the Year Reflection – Students are required to be involved in the graduation commencement and/or end of the year planning and preparation at their internship sites.
- d. Book Summary Paper – Students will write a summary of the Littrell and Peterson book.
- e. Role in Preparing for the Next School Year – Students will spend several days working with their site supervisor (and other counselors in the department if possible), gaining an understanding of the depth and breadth of the school counselor's role in preparing for the next school year. This can be written in an outline/bullet format (no set page limit).
