Unit Theme: Educator as Creator of Effective Educational Environments: Integrating diverse students, subjects, strategies, societies, and technologies.

Catalog Course Description: Topics include instructional strategies, models for classroom management and discipline, parent-school community involvement and school law. Forty-five clock hours of field-based activities primarily in reading and language arts.

Prerequisites: ELE 2000 and ELE 2320. Concurrent enrollment in ELE 3280 and ELE 3350, or permission of department chair. University Teacher Education requirements apply and department requirements for enrollment must be met, including an expectation of second semester Junior standing.

Course Purpose: The purpose of this course is to provide proven teaching methods coupled with effective instructional theory, best practice, to pre-service teachers. We want to develop the premise that the teacher is an educational leader and decision-maker who both directly affects the students and influences the presentation of subject matter. We will offer a broad spectrum of instructional methodologies, techniques, and approaches that are workable in today’s diverse classrooms.

Course Textbooks:

Supplemental Materials:
Live Text Account
Professional Portfolio Packet
Instructional Technology Center (ITC) Proficiency Packet

Teaching Model:

The Social Family Models: Building the Learning Community
- When we work together, we generate a collective energy that we call synergy. The social models of teaching are constructed to take advantage of this phenomenon by building learning communities. Essentially, “classroom management” is a matter of developing cooperative relationships in the classroom. The development of positive school cultures is a process of developing integrative and productive ways of interacting and norms that support vigorous learning activity.

The Behavioral Models
- Behavioral models concentrate on observable behavior and clearly defined tasks and methods for communicating progress to the student.

Dispositions: Teacher candidates in the Department of EC/ELE/MLE will exhibit professional ethical practices, effective communication, sensitivity to diversity, the ability to provide varied teaching practices evidenced in a supportive and encouraging environment.

Live Text Assessment Requirement: For those classes with Live Text or Practicum- If the portfolio or Live Text requirements are rated, by the instructor, to have been completed in less than a satisfactory manner then no more than a "D" may be earned in the class regardless of the number of points earned.

Standards:
Course requirements and demonstrated competencies are aligned with the following standards:
Association for Childhood Education International (ACEI) http://www.acei.org/Synopsis.htm
National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) http://www.naeyc.org/accreditation/next_era.asp
Outcomes specific to ELE 3000:
- Using a variety of assessment and evaluation procedures, demonstrate alternative instructional methods to teach the designated curriculum in order to achieve similar learning outcomes.
- Using the designated curriculum and Illinois Learning Standards, design instruction to meet the needs of all students and foster a desire to learn.
- Provide for the uniqueness of individuals, recognizing the characteristics of culturally pluralistic and “at risk” populations, and foster appreciation for those differences.
- Model appropriate professional behavior.
- Design instruction to promote a healthy self-concept in students.
- Demonstrate alternative methods of achieving similar learning outcomes. Decide what will be learned and ways to achieve it.

Practicum Notebook

The collection of practicum artifacts is a means by which the course instructor can become informed about each student’s personal and individualized practicum experience.

Midterm and Final Exams

The exam consists of multiple measures, including multiple choice, short answer, and essay questions. Questions will be derived from lecture, assigned readings, discussions, and student-generated ideas.

Participation/Goal Activity

All notes, in-class work, and assignments should be kept neatly organized in a three ring binder. These will be reviewed during the final exam and used to aid in evaluating class participation. You also will be expected to establish at least one personal/individual goal for this course, reporting at the end of the semester your attempts and efforts to attain that particular goal.

Reading Assignments & Discussion Questions- It is your responsibility to keep up with the reading assignments and to come to class prepared to discuss the information contained in the assigned reading and be able to apply this to the information presented in class.

Mandatory Completion:

- LiveText submissions (Lesson Plan and Field Experience)
- Eastern Illinois University Professional Portfolio
- Professional Development Requirements sheet
- Instructional Technology Center proficiency

Grading Scale: A = 92%-100%, B = 82%-91%, C = 72%-81%, D = 62%-71%

Consistent attendance is a basic expectation and extremely important to educational progress. You are expected to notify the instructor prior to any absence. Grades on all assignments will be deducted 5% of the possible points for each weekday the assignment is late. Your assignments will be judged on quality of content, presentation, organization, and the integration of ideas. Evaluation of progress will be based on written exams, course assignments, and class contributions.
