Unit Theme: Educator as Creator of Effective Educational Environments: Integrating diverse students, subjects, strategies, societies, and technologies.

Catalog Course Description: Objectives, research, teaching methods, and materials for teaching and evaluating the language arts. Field-based activities will be provided in conjunction with ELE 3000.

Prerequisites & Concurrent Enrollment: Concurrent enrollment in ELE 3280 and ELE 3000, or permission of department chair. For middle school option, consult advisor for course sequence. University Teacher Education requirements apply and department requirements for enrollment must be met, including an expectation of second semester Junior standing.

Course Purpose: Recent literature is emphasizing the relationship between reading and other language arts; therefore, a two semester hour course in language arts will allow prospective teachers the opportunity to read and utilize the current research and teaching techniques expected of a competent teacher.

Course Textbook:

Teaching Model:
The Information-Processing Models
- Information-processing models emphasize ways of enhancing the human being’s innate drive to make sense of the world by acquiring and organizing data, sensing problems and generating solutions to them, and developing concepts and language for conveying them.

Dispositions: Teacher candidates in the department of EC/ELE/MLE will exhibit professional ethical practices, effective communication, sensitivity to diversity, the ability to provide varied teaching practices evidenced in a supportive and encouraging atmosphere for learning.

Live Text Assessment Requirement: For those classes with Live Text or Practicum- If the portfolio or Live Text requirements are rated, by the instructor, to have been completed in less than a satisfactory manner then no more than a "D" may be earned in the class regardless of the number of points earned.

Standards
Course requirements and demonstrated competencies are aligned with the following standards:
- Technology Standards for all Illinois Teachers (ICTS) http://www.isbe.net/profprep/CASCDvr/pdfs/24120_coretechnology.pdf
- Association for Childhood Education International (ACEI) http://www.acei.org/Synopsis.htm
- National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) http://www.naeyc.org/accreditation/next_era.asp

Thematic Unit

This thematic collection of lessons and activities will integrate multiple elementary disciplines and all the six language arts while concentrating on a specific theme. The objective is to have elementary students improve their language arts skills while learning about and participating in learning activities from various content areas.

75 pts

In-class Assignments and Quizzes

Daily assignments may be offered in connection with course content. Assignments will be an incorporation of multiple language arts elements. Credit for the assignment is dependent upon attendance.

10 pts each

Midterm / Final Exams

The exams may consist of multiple measures, including multiple choice, short answer, and essay questions. Questions will be derived from lecture, assigned readings, discussions, and student-generated ideas. The final exam will not be comprehensive.

75 pts each

Participation

Active participation in classroom activities is a basic expectation. All notes, in-class work, and assignments should be kept neatly organized in a three ring binder. These will be reviewed during the final exam and used to aid in evaluating class participation.

25 pts

Handwriting Proficiency

Mandatory – Demonstration of cursive and manuscript writing in D’Nealian and Zaner-Bloser scripts.

Pass/Fail

Reading Assignments & Discussion Questions - It is your responsibility to keep up with the reading assignments and to come to class prepared to discuss the information contained in the assigned reading and be able to apply this to the information presented in class.

Grading Scale: 92%-100% = A 82%-91% = B 72%-81% = C 62%-71% = D

Consistent attendance is a basic expectation and extremely important to educational progress. You are expected to notify the instructor prior to any absence. Grades on all assignments will be deducted 5% of the possible points for each weekday the assignment is late. Your assignments will be judged on quality of content, presentation, organization, and the integration of ideas. Evaluation of progress will be based on written exams, course assignments, and class contributions.
