PART II: ASSURANCE OF STUDENT LEARNING

1. List the student learning objectives of this course:

- a. If this is a general education course, indicate which objectives are designed to help students achieve one or more of the following goals of general education and university-wide assessment:
- EIU graduates will write and speak effectively.
 - EIU graduates will think critically.
 - EIU graduates will function as responsible citizens.

Through readings, lecture, assignments and active class participation, students will

- a. examine and discuss principles of group dynamics including group process components, developmental stage theories, and group members' roles and behaviors, and therapeutic factors of group work.
- b. examine and discuss leadership and facilitation styles and approaches, including characteristics of various types of group leaders and leadership styles, as well as professional preparation standards for group leaders.
- c. examine and discuss theories of group counseling including commonalities, distinguishing characteristics and pertinent research and literature.
- d. examine and discuss group counseling methods including group counselor orientations and behaviors, ethical standards, appropriate selection criteria and methods and methods of evaluation of effectiveness.
- e. direct experiences in which students participate as group members in a small group activity, approved by the program, for a minimum of 10 clock hours over the course of one academic term.

If this is a graduate-level course, indicate which objectives are designed to help students achieve established goals for learning at the graduate level:

Learning Goals	Objectives
• Depth of content knowledge	a-d
• Effective critical thinking and problem solving	e
• Effective oral and written communication
• Advanced scholarship through research or creative activity

2. Identify the assignments/activities the instructor will use to determine how well students attained the learning objectives:

a. Students will examine and discuss principles of group dynamics including group process components, developmental stage theories, and group members' roles and behaviors, and therapeutic factors of group work.	Mid-term exam; Final Exam; Experiential Group; Reaction Journals; Critiques
b. Students will examine and discuss leadership and facilitation styles and approaches, including characteristics of various types of group leaders and leadership styles, as well as professional preparation standards for group leaders.	Mid-term Exam; Experiential Group; Reaction Journals; Critiques
c. Students will examine and discuss theories of group counseling including commonalities, distinguishing characteristics and pertinent research and literature.	Final Exam
d. Students will examine and discuss group counseling methods including group counselor orientations and behaviors, ethical standards, appropriate selection criteria and methods and methods of evaluation of effectiveness.	Final Exam; Experiential Group; Reaction Journal; Critiques
e. Students will direct experiences in which students participate as group members in a small group activity, approved by the program, for a minimum of 10 clock hours over the course of one academic term.	Experiential Group; Reaction Journals

- Experiential Group Involvement: Students' attendance is the only direct evaluation of their participation in the experiential sessions. The nature and quality of the participation in experiential sessions does not affect their grade.
- Reaction Journals to Experiential Sessions: Students will submit a reaction paper for each of the first eight group meetings.
- Submit two critiques (4 to 5 pages each) of the observed sessions: Report on group process, stages, leader and member behaviors and the interactions students' observe. Identify what these behaviors represent in terms of group process and techniques.
- Midterm and Final Exam: There will be a midterm and final exam in this course. Each exam will consist of both multiple-choice and essay questions. Students will be responsible for all material from assigned readings and class discussions.

3. Explain how the instructor will determine students' grades for the course:

Grades will be based on the following criteria:

Midterm Exam	25%
Reaction Journals	25%
Critiques	25%
Final Exam	25 %
Total	100%

4. For technology-delivered and other nontraditional-delivered courses/sections, address the following: N/A

- a. Describe how the format/technology will be used to support and assess students' achievement of the specified learning objectives:
- b. Describe how the integrity of student work will be assured:
- c. Describe provisions for and requirements of instructor-student and student-student interaction, including the kinds of technologies that will be used to support the interaction (e.g., e-mail, web-based discussions, computer conferences, etc.):

5. For courses numbered 4750-4999, specify additional or more stringent requirements for students enrolling for graduate credit. These include: N/A

- a. course objectives;
- b. projects that require application and analysis of the course content; and
- c. separate methods of evaluation for undergraduate and graduate students.

6. If applicable, indicate whether this course is writing-active, writing-intensive, or writing-centered, and describe how the course satisfies the criteria for the type of writing course identified. N/A

PART III: OUTLINE OF THE COURSE

Provide a week-by-week outline of the course's content. Specify units of time (e.g., for a 3-0-3 course, 45 fifty-minute class periods over 15 weeks) for each major topic in the outline. Provide clear and sufficient details about content and procedures so that possible questions of overlap with other courses can be addressed. For technology-delivered or other nontraditional-delivered courses/sections, explain how the course content "units" are sufficiently equivalent to the traditional on-campus semester hour units of time described above.

Outline of the Course: 15 weeks of 150 minutes in class meetings.

Week	Lecture Topic
1	Syllabus and Introduction to Groups and Ethics
2	Therapeutic factors and Group Counselor
3	Forming a Group

	Change and Formation of Group

9	Experiential Session #2
10	Experiential Session #3
11	Experiential Session #4
12	Experiential Session #5
13	Experiential Session #6
14	Experiential Session #7
15	Experiential Session #8 – Final Group
16	Final Exam

PART IV: PURPOSE AND NEED

1. Explain the department's rationale for developing and proposing the course.

This is a required course for the M.S. in Counseling. It is also a competency required for continued accreditation by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP).

- a. If this is a general education course, you also must indicate the segment of the general education program into which it will be placed, and describe how the course meets the requirements of that segment. N/A
- b. If the course or some sections of the course may be technology delivered, explain why. N/A

2. Justify the level of the course and any course prerequisites, co-requisites, or registration restrictions.

This is a required course for the M.S. in Counseling. It is also a competency required for continued accreditation by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP). Pre-requisites ensure proper preparation for higher level counseling practice in the field.

3. If the course is similar to an existing course or courses, justify its development and offering.
 - a. If the contents substantially duplicate those of an existing course, the new proposal should be discussed with the appropriate chairpersons, deans, or curriculum committees and their responses noted in the proposal. None at graduate level.
 - b. Cite course(s) to be deleted if the new course is approved. If no deletions are planned, note the exceptional need to be met or the curricular gap to be filled.
Revised course only.
4. Impact on Program(s):
 - a. For undergraduate programs, specify whether this course will be required for a major or minor or used as an approved elective.
 - b. For graduate programs, specify whether this course will be a core requirement for all candidates in a degree or certificate program or an approved elective.
Required for graduate students admitted to M.S. in Counseling in the Department of Counseling and Student Development.

If the proposed course changes a major, minor, or certificate program in or outside of the department, you must submit a separate proposal requesting that change along with the course proposal. Provide a copy of the existing program in the current catalog with the requested changes noted.

PART V: IMPLEMENTATION

1. Faculty member(s) to whom the course may be assigned:

Qualified Graduate Faculty in the Department of Counseling and Student Development.

2. Additional costs to students:

No additional costs to students.

3. Text and supplementary materials to be used (Include publication dates):

Corey, M.S. and Corey, G. (2008). Groups: Process and practice (8th ed.). Pacific Grove, CA: Brooks/Cole.

PART VI: COMMUNITY COLLEGE TRANSFER

If the proposed course is a 1000- or 2000-level course, state either, "A community college course may be judged equivalent to this course" OR "A community college course will not be judged equivalent to this course." A community college course will not be judged equivalent to a 3000- or 4000-level course but may be accepted as a substitute; however, upper-division credit will not be awarded.

PART VII: APPROVALS

Date approved by the department or school: 1/18/2012

Date approved by the college curriculum committee: 4/2/2012

Date approved by the Honors Council (if this is an honors course):

Date approved by CAA: Not applicable CGS: 8/28/12

*In writing-active courses, frequent, brief writing activities and assignments are required. Such activities -- some of which are to be graded -- might include five-minute in-class writing assignments, journal keeping, lab reports, essay examinations, short papers, longer papers, or a variety of other writing-to-learn activities of the instructor's invention. Writing assignments and activities in writing-active courses are designed primarily to assist students in mastering course content, secondarily to strengthen students' writing skills. In writing-intensive courses, several writing assignments and writing activities are required. These assignments and activities, which are to be spread over the course of the semester, serve the dual purpose of strengthening writing skills and deepening understanding of course content. At least one writing assignment is to be revised by the student after it has been read and commented on by the instructor. In writing-intensive courses, students' writing should constitute no less than 35% of the final course grade. In writing-centered courses (English 1001G, English 1002G, and their honors equivalents), students learn the principles and the process of writing in all of its stages, from inception to completion. The quality of students' writing is the principal determinant of the course grade. The minimum writing requirement is 20 pages (5,000 words).
