4. Evaluation of Student Learning.

a. Final grades will be calculated in the following fashion:

Sample point accumulation:

4 exams	100 Pts ea= 400 Points	40%
1 final	200 Points	20%
Quizzes	100 Points	10%
Homework	100 points	10%
Participation	200 Points	20%

Total points for a perfect grade = 1000 Points = 100% = A

b. This course is writing-intensive in that students will be required to work consistently toward an ability to sustain written discourse in German. As a result, there will be numerous short compositions written throughout the course which will be commented on by the instructor, evaluated for grammar, style and content and which the students will be required to revise. All exams and most quizzes will incorporate short essay questions as well. More than 35% of the final grade will be based on written elements.

5. Rationale:

YY This course will be placed under the Humanities and FineArts Segment of the General Education Curriculum. The course meets the requirements of that segment by exploring the rich linguistic, artistic, musical and literary worlds of German-speaking lands through practical application of original materials from these lands.

ZZ The 2000 level of the course indicates its intermediate placement in a sequential series.

AAA All Foreign Languages majors or minors may use this course to complete the required number of hours either as part of the German concentration or the second or third language requirement depending on the course selection chosen.

6. Implementation:

BBB Course will be assigned initially to Herb Breidenbach, Shelley French, or Karl Konrad CCC Taylor, Heimy, Werner Haas, and Elfe Vallaster-Dona. Deutsch - Immer Besser. John Wiley & Sons, New York, 1998.

Goedsche, C.R. and W.E. Glaettli, Sutter. American Book Company, New York, 1987.

c. There is no additional cost to students.

d. Fall 2000

7. Community College Transfer: A 3rd semester intermediate German community college course may be judged as equivalent to this course.
