tests & quizzes	30%
compositions	20%
lab	10%
final exam	15%

- b. This course focuses on all four language skills, and provides many opportunities for writing in Spanish. This course is writing-intensive in that students will be required to work consistently toward an ability to sustain written discourse in Spanish. As a result there will be numerous short compositions written throughout the course which will be commented on by the instructor, evaluated for grammar, style and content and which the students will be required to correct and rewrite. All exams and most quizzes will incorporate short essay questions as well. More than 35% of the final grade will be based on written elements.

5. Rationale.

- This course will be placed in the Humanities and Fine Arts Segment of the General Education Curriculum. The course meets the requirements of that segment by exploring the rich linguistic, artistic, musical and literary patterns of the Hispanic world through practical applications, visuals, audio and sample graded readings.
- The 2000 level of the course is appropriate for the intermediate language materials being studied.
- Although there are parallel courses in French and German, there is no similarity to other Spanish courses.
- Foreign Languages majors or minors may use this course to complete the required number of hours either as part of the Spanish concentration or the second or third requirement depending on the course selection chosen.

6. Implementation

- a. Faculty member(s) to whom the course will be assigned initially:
Ms. Penelope J. Clay, Dr. Luis F. Clay Méndez, Mr. Richard Crome, Dr. Karen Taylor
- b. The textbook(s) and supplementary materials to be used:
Jean-Paul Valette, Rebecca Valette and Teresa Carrera-Hanley, Situaciones, D.C. Heath (1994)
- c. Students have to purchase the workbook and manual that accompany text.

7. Community College Transfer

A 4th semester intermediate Spanish community college course may be judged equivalent to this course.
