2. Rationale for proposal:
This revision of the Music History sequence consolidates the three-semester survey into two semesters, which will be preceded by MUS 3553G Survey of Western Musical Masterworks, an introduction to music history that can also serve as an upper-level Music Gen Ed course.

3. Justifications for (answer N/A if not applicable)
   Similarity to other courses: N/A Prerequisites:
   Music History & Literature I, Honors is appropriately placed at the 3000-level. As students are expected to be musically literate to satisfy the goals of the course, MUS 3553G/3593G Survey of Western Musical Masterworks, is a prerequisite for this course. This course constitutes the Honors version of Music History and Literature I and contains an Honor Project.
   Co-requisites: N/A Enrollment restrictions: N/A Writing active, intensive, centered:
   This course is writing intensive. More than 35% of the course grade is determined from written work. Essay questions are included in all exams, and students complete a research paper over the course of the semester, including a draft-stage so that students can complete a revision following suggestions offered by the instructor.
