

English Studies Camp for High School Students Application

Use this form to submit your application material via standard mail to: Dr. Melissa Ames, English Department, Eastern Illinois University, 600 Lincoln Avenue, Charleston IL 61920.

Student Information

Student Name

Address

City

State

ZIP Code

Phone Number

Email

Date of Birth

High School Name

High School Address

School District

Grade Level (as of the coming Fall)

Camp Participation

Attending Camp as (select one):

Attending Camp as:
(Select One)

Residential Student (requiring week-long lodging)

Commuter Student (providing own transportation to/from camp daily)

Are you Applying for a Scholarship to Attend this Camp?

Yes

No

Camp Participants attend Two Sessions During the Week-Long Camp. In Order to Place You in Sessions that Align with Your Interests, Please Rank Your Preferred Camp Sessions Using the Session Codes Provided Below:

1st Choice:

2nd Choice:

3rd Choice:

4th Choice:

5th Choice:

6th Choice:

Session Offerings:

S1 - Shakespeare in His Time and Ours

S2 - A Novel Idea: How to Get Started, Keep Writing, & Learn about the Book-Publishing Biz

S3 - Monsters Inc.

S4 - Reading and Writing Historical Fiction

S5 - Cyberpunk Fiction and Film

S6 - Spoken Word: Writing and Performing Poetry

S7 - Hands-On Reading Experiences: Exploring Pre-Print Bookmaking

S8 - Writing Comedy

S9 - Gender and Sexual Diversity in Literature

S10 - Words Are Everything: The Power of Craft in Poetry and Fiction

Application Statement

Please submit a 1-page essay that discusses your interest in this summer camp and/or the individual sessions you are applying to participate in.

Submission

Applications are due by May 1.