

2016 English Studies Camp for High School Students Application

Use this form to submit your application material via standard mail to: Dr. Melissa Ames, English Department, Eastern Illinois University, 600 Lincoln Avenue, Charleston IL 61920.

Student Information

Student Name

Address

City

State

ZIP Code

Phone Number

Email

Date of Birth

High School Name

High School Address

School District

Grade Level (as of Fall 2016)

Camp Participation

Attending Camp as (select one):

Attending Camp as:
(Select One)

Residential Student (requiring week-long lodging)

Commuter Student (providing own transportation to/from camp daily)

Are you Applying for a Scholarship to Attend this Camp?

Yes

No

Camp Participants attend Two Sessions During the Week-Long Camp. In Order to Place You in Sessions that Align with Your Interests, Please Rank Your Preferred Camp Sessions Using the Session Codes Provided Below:

1st Choice:

2nd Choice:

3rd Choice:

4th Choice:

5th Choice:

6th Choice:

Session Offerings:

- S1 - Reviving the Dead: The Walking Dead and Literary History
- S2 - A Novel Idea: How to Get Started, Keep Writing, & Learn about the Book-Publishing Biz
- S3 - Frankenstein 2.0: The Legend, The Reality, The Science
- S4 - “Not of an age, but for all of time”: Shakespeare, Then and Now
- S5 - Reading Images: Picture Book to Graphic Novel
- S6 - Spoken Word: Writing and Performing Poetry
- S7 - Spectacular Worlds & Social Commentary: Science Fiction in Literature, Film, & Television
- S8 - Before CSI: The Rise of the Detective in Literature & Society
- S9 - Reel Images: Gender, Genre, and the Movies in English Studies
- S10 - Thinking Beyond the Page: Experimenting with the Lyric Essay
- S11 - Becoming a Cultural Critic: Writing about Media & Popular Culture

Application Statement

Please submit a 1-page essay that discusses your interest in this summer camp and/or the individual sessions you are applying to participate in.

Submission Applications

are due by: May 1, 2016