

English Studies Essay Contest

Deadline: Friday, March 15, 2019

The Scholarships and Awards Committee invites undergraduate and graduate students to submit essays from Spring 2018-Fall 2018 English courses to the English Department's annual English Studies Essay Contest. Undergraduate and graduate essays will be judged in separate competitions.

- Essays should be of at least 1200 words.
- Essays may address any topic, including literary analysis or interpretation, rhetoric or composition studies, professional writing, pedagogy, and creative nonfiction.
- Submissions should be clean copies without instructor marks or comments.
- A student may submit only one entry.

Monetary prizes will be awarded at the English Department Awards Tea. Winners will be invited to present on a panel at the English Studies Day Conference.

Please submit your essay online at: <https://tinyurl.com/EIUEngEssay>

You will find the form on the EIU website under EIU Department of English/Current Students/Essay contests and creative writing contests.

Please do not submit the same essay to more than one contest.
